The Trustee of the superannuation fund is required to tell you the following things before you provide it with your tax file number. Your tax file number is confidential, and you should know the following things before you decide to provide it.

The Trustee can collect your tax file number under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993.

If you do provide your tax file number to the Trustee, it will only be used for the legal purposes. This includes finding or identifying your superannuation benefits where other information is insufficient, calculating tax on any eligible termination payment you may be entitled to, and providing information to the Commissioner of Taxation. These purposes may change in the future.

If you provide your tax file number to the Trustee, it may be provided to the Trustee of any other superannuation fund to which your benefits are transferred in the future. The Trustee will not pass your tax file number to any other fund if you inform it, in writing, that you do not want it to pass it on. The Trustee may also give it to the Commissioner of Taxation. Otherwise, the Trustee will treat it as confidential and comply with the provisions of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, relevant taxation legislation and the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).
