Date: 6th December 2021

To the Trustee
G & W SUPER FUND

Limited Recourse Borrowing Arrangement Documentation and the Superannuation Industry Supervision Act 1993

You have asked Abbott & Mourly to provide you with a letter of comfort in relation to the limited recourse borrowing arrangement documentation prepared in relation to the G & W SUPER FUND.

I confirm our opinion that the documentation prepared in relation to the limited recourse borrowing arrangement documentation, to the best of our knowledge, complies with the requirements of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 ("SIS Act") at the time of preparation and was created in a form that could be used to establish a limited recourse borrowing arrangement that complies with the SIS Act.

We have not advised on and do not express any opinion as to the specific details of the borrowing arrangements. We have not advised on and do not express any opinion as to whether the Trustee has complied with the other obligations under the SIS Act in relation to acquiring the Asset under the borrowing arrangement, including but not limited to:

- (a) the acquisition rules in section 66 of the SIS Act that restricts the assets that can be acquired from a related party (as defined in section 10 of the SIS Act);
- (b) the prudential requirements and covenants contained in section 52B of the SIS Act including the requirement to act in accordance with the Fund's investment strategy which must provide for the limited recourse borrowing arrangement;
- (c) the sole purpose test in section 62 of the SIS Act; and
- (d) the requirement to deal on arm's length terms in accordance with section 109 of the SIS Act, and we have assumed that the Trustee of the Fund has complied with the above obligations.

In addition, we provide no comment on the important issue of non-arm's length income or expenses under section 295 – 550 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997. Further we express no opinion on the lender's documents or any financial, statistical, taxation or accounting information or matter, including the appropriateness of the investment in the Asset or the ability of the Trustee to repay the loan under the borrowing arrangement.

We have not taken into account the implications of any pending or foreshadowed legislative or regulatory proposal or amendment or any litigation pending, hearing or judgment in any Australian State, Territory or Federal Court, including (but not limited to) any matter not yet decided on appeal.
