- 34.6. The Landlord must give the Tenant, before terminating this Agreement under provision 34.2(a) for non-payment of rent, notice under section 129 of the Conveyancing Act 1919.
- 34.7. Termination by the Landlord ends this Agreement, but the Landlord retains its right to sue the Tenant for unpaid money or for damages (including damages for the loss of the benefits that the Landlord would have received if this Agreement had not been terminated early) for breaches of the Tenant's obligations under this Agreement.
- 34.8. Even though we do not exercise our rights under this Agreement on one occasion, we may do so on any later occasion.
- 34.9. The Landlord may enter the Premises if he has reasonable grounds to believe the Premises have been abandoned.
- 34.10. The Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Agreement if the Landlord has seriously or repeatedly breached any of its conditions. The Tenant shall give the Landlord fourteen (14) days' notice at the same time indicating the nature of the breach. The Landlord shall have fourteen (14) days to rectify any such breach and if the Landlord fails to rectify such breach within such period, the Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Agreement on the giving of an additional fourteen (14) days' notice of his intention to do so.
- 34.11. Any action by the Landlord or the Tenant in accordance with this clause shall not affect any claim for damages in respect to a breach of a condition of this Agreement.

34.12. Upon termination of this Agreement for any cause, the Tenant shall vacate the Premises:-

- (a) in substantially the same state of repair and cleanliness, removing all the Tenant's belongings and any other goods brought onto the Premises during the term of this Agreement.
- (b) in substantially the same condition as the Premises were in at the commencement of this Agreement, fair wear and tear excepted.
- (c) to deliver vacant possession of the Premises in a peaceful and prompt manner, by securely locking the Premises and handing over all keys to the Landlord or the Landlord's agent, including any copies of keys the Tenant made during the period the Tenant occupied the Premises.

35. GUARANTORS LIABILITY

35.1. In consideration of the Landlord leasing the Premises to the Tenant in accordance with this Agreement, the Guarantors for themselves and each of them, and each of their executors, unconditionally agree that they and each of them will be (with the Tenant) jointly and severally liable to the Landlord for the payment of the Rent and all other monies payable by the Tenant, and also for the due performance and observance of all the terms and conditions on the part of the Tenant contained or implied. It is hereby further expressly agreed and declared that the Landlord may grant to the Tenant time or any other indulgence and may compound or compromise or release the Tenant without affecting the liability of the Guarantors.
