Dear DIRECTOR

Important information about your Loan Facility Account 698666997

Bendigo Bank has not charged higher default rates of interest since May 2019 on any business or commercial term loan account that has expired, been in arrears or otherwise in default.

This grace period is now ending and from 1 February 2022, if your loan account is expired, in arrears or in default, default rate interest will be charged on your account in accordance with the terms and conditions applicable to your loan account.

Note: "default rate interest" may be referred to in your loan documentation as interest charged at the "Default Rate", "Specified Rate" or "Higher Rate".

If your loan is currently in default or has expired, please contact your Relationship Manager to place the account in order and avoid being charged higher default rate interest.

Alternately please contact us on 1300 236 344 or visit your local branch.

Please note that the bank may elect not to reactivate default rate interest charges in respect of customers who are currently experiencing reported financial hardship.

Yours sincerely

Jim Sarris
