Code 143 Commercial Lease

This lease is made between the landlord and the tenant named in the Schedule for the premises for the term beginning on the commencement date as specified in the Schedule.

This lease comprises -

- the respective covenants of the landlord and the tenant; and
- the Schedule; and
- the Special Conditions, if any, in the Special Conditions Schedule.

If the Act applies, this lease has effect subject to it.

The tenant covenants and agrees with the landlord as follows -

1. Rent

- 1.1 To pay the rent in advance during the term and any over-holding by equal, consecutive calendar monthly instalments starting on the rental commencement date specified in the Schedule and then on the first day of each month, unless otherwise agreed. The first and the final payments of the rent will be apportioned, if necessary.
- 1.2 Each instalment of rent will be paid -
 - (a) without demand, deduction, or set-off (whether legal or equitable); and
 - (b) in the manner required by the landlord from time to time.

2. Outgoings

- 2.1 During the term and any over-holding to pay on or before the due date for payment, or to repay to the landlord within 14 days of demand, the following outgoings in connection with the premises -
 - (a) municipal, water, drainage, and sewerage rates, charges, levies and special rates or levies;
 - (b) land tax calculated on the basis the premise or the building of which the premises forms a part is the only land owned by the landlord (single holding);
 - (c) congestion and parking levies;
 - (d) gas, electricity, telephone, communications, sewage or garbage/waste disposal, and water consumption charges;
 - (e) owners corporation fees, special fees and charges;
 - (f) the expense of cleaning, inspecting, maintaining, repairing and/or servicing the premises and the landlord's fixtures, fittings, plant or equipment in or serving the premises;
 - (g) fire service levies;
 - (h) insurance premiums and other charges for insurances effected by the landlord in relation to the premises including (but not limited to) fire insurance on all improvements on a replacement and reinstatement basis and such other risks as the landlord may require from time to time and whether or not the risk is one in respect of which insurance is commonly obtainable at the commencement of this lease. The insurances may include plant and equipment breakdown insurance, public liability insurance for the amount of cover specified in the Schedule, loss of rent and consequential loss insurance and any other insurance effected by the landlord in relation to any risk relating to the landlord's ownership or interest in the premises. The landlord may insure for such amounts and with such extensions and exclusions as the landlord thinks fit, but if the Act applies the landlord is not entitled to recover any premiums or other charges which the landlord may be prohibited from claiming from the tenant under the Act;
 - (i) the expense of the attendance of the fire brigade in response to a fire alarm generated from or in connection with the premises;
 - (j) the expense of inspecting, auditing, servicing, repairing, maintaining, monitoring, and testing all essential safety measures at or provided in relation to or in connection with the premises, provided the payment or repayment is not contrary to law; and

Code 143 Commercial Lease

- (k) any other outgoings of whatever nature which are now or may during the term or any period of over-holding be charged to or payable by the landlord in respect of or in connection with the premises unless expressly excluded in the Schedule.

- 2.2 If an outgoing relates to a period outside the term or a period of over-holding it will be apportioned.
- 2.3 If an outgoing is not separately assessed or charged in relation to the premises, to pay or reimburse a portion calculated on the proportion which the lettable area of the premises bears to the lettable area of the whole of the land or the building to which the outgoing relates, unless some other manner of apportionment is set out in the Schedule.
- 2.4 If the Act applies, to pay that proportion of the outgoings -
- (a) that benefit all premises in the building; the proportion that the lettable area of the premises bears to the lettable area of the building, as stated in the Schedule;
 - (b) that benefit the premises and only some of the other premises in the building; the proportion that the lettable area of the premises bears to the lettable area of all premises that together share the benefit of the outgoing;
 - (c) that benefit only the premises: 100%.

3. Building operating expenses

- 3.1 During the term and any over-holding to pay, or to repay the landlord within 14 days of demand, a proportionate share of all expenses paid or incurred by the landlord in operating, managing, equipping, lighting, repairing, and maintaining the building including (without limitation) lavatories, sanitary services, cleaning, fire protection, essential safety measures, insurance premiums in respect of liability and other risks which the landlord reasonably requires.
- 3.2 The tenant's proportion of the expenses will be determined in the same manner as that referred to in clause 2.4 unless -
- (a) some other way of apportioning the expenses is described in the Schedule; or
 - (b) the Act applies to an expense, in which case the tenant's proportion must exclude an expense that the landlord is not permitted to recover from the tenant; or
 - (c) legislation (by way of example, but not limited to, the Building Act 1993) applies to an expense, in which case the tenant's proportion must exclude the proportion, if any, of the expense that the legislation prohibits the landlord recovering from the tenant.

4. Insurances

- 4.1 To effect and keep current during occupation of the tenant a public liability policy in the name of the tenant for an amount of not less than $20 million or such higher amount as the landlord may reasonably require from time to time. The policy must be placed with an insurer approved by the landlord, approval not to be unreasonably withheld. The tenant must produce evidence of the currency of the insurance, within seven days of a request to do so.
- 4.2 Not to do, allow, or acquiesce in anything being done at the premises or the building which may result in a policy of insurance relating to the premises becoming void or voidable or which may allow an insurer to decline a claim under a condition or exclusion contained in the policy or policies or otherwise or which may result in the premium being increased. If a premium is increased, the tenant must promptly pay or reimburse the increase (Note: this obligation applies even if the tenant pays rent on a gross lease basis).
- 4.3 To pay or reimburse the landlord for any excesses on insurance claims, or to pay the expense of works or repairs where the expense of the works or repairs would be less than the excess payable on an insurance claim, if an insurance claim had been made.
- 4.4 To effect and keep current during the tenant's occupation of the premises an insurance policy covering the tenant's and others goods at the premises for their current reinstatement or replacement cost against damage or destruction by fire, water, theft, malicious and accidental damage, storm, lightning and tempest, earthquake, explosion, impact by vehicles and aircraft and articles dropped from aircraft.

5. Maintenance and repairs

5.1 During the term and any period of over-holding to maintain and keep in the state of repair existing on the commencement date of the term -

- (a) the exterior (including - but not limited to - fences, landscaped areas, vehicle parking areas, pathways, driveways and hard-stand areas) and the interior of the premises and the landlord's fixtures and fittings at the premises. The landlord's fixtures and fittings installed at the premises on the commencement date of the initial term are set out in the Schedule; and
- (b) any roller shutter doors and electronically operated gates comprised in the landlord's fixtures and fittings by engaging the services of an appropriate contractor approved by the landlord and to produce evidence of the engagement and maintenance to the landlord or the managing agent on request fair wear and tear and damage to the premises or the landlord's fixture and fittings by fire or other cause not attributable to the default or negligence of the tenant or the negligence of the tenant's licensees or invitees excepted.

- (c) For the avoidance of doubt, "commencement date of the term" means the commencement date of the initial term, if the lease is renewed for a further term or terms.

5.2 If during the term or a period of over-holding alterations or additions are made to the premises or to the landlord's fixtures and fittings installed at the premises, to maintain them in the condition they were in when made, subject to the exceptions to clause 5.1.

5.3 To replace with a similar article of at least equal value any landlord's fixture or fitting destroyed, lost, or so badly damaged that it cannot be satisfactorily restored to its former condition, subject to the exceptions to clause 5.1.

5.4 Damage to or deterioration in the condition of the premises or the landlord's fixtures and fittings or both will not be attributable to fair wear and tear if it is wholly or partly brought about because the tenant has not or has inadequately carried out maintenance or repairs or has permitted, allowed or acquiesced in -

- (a) structural loadings being exceeded;
- (b) vehicles with inappropriate tyres or tracks or of excessive weight or size being used at or allowed on the premises;
- (c) the fixtures and fittings of the landlord or the tenant being used in a manner inconsistent with their purpose;
- (d) inadequate rubbish or waste removal, cleaning, gardening, lawn mowing or pest control.

5.5 During the term and any period of over-holding to -

- (a) thoroughly cleanse the inside and outside of the external and internal windows of the premises at least once in every three months (calculated beginning on the commencement date of the term) and also when otherwise reasonably required from time to time by the landlord or managing agent;
- (b) keep all drains waste pipes, gutters, spouting, rain-heads, and downpipes which exclusively serve the premises clean and free of debris;
- (c) only remove the landlord's fixtures and fittings from the premises if it is necessary to do so to have them repaired or replaced, and then only if the landlord or managing agent has first given written consent;

Code 143 Commercial Lease

- (d) only engage a person to maintain, alter, repair, install or make alterations or additions to the premises or to carry out repairs to or removal of the landlord's fixtures and fittings if the landlord or the managing agent has first given written approval, which will not be unreasonably withheld;
- (e) promptly unblock or repair or both the sewers, drains, wash basins, sinks, showers, lavatories, sanitary apparatus, washing facilities and mechanical installations in or serving the premises. Workmanship and materials to be to the reasonable satisfaction of the landlord or the managing agent. The tenant acknowledges having inspected these items on or before the commencement date and on inspection they were found to be unblocked and undamaged;
- (f) promptly replace broken or damaged glass, including float or plate glass, of the external and internal windows and other broken or damaged glass with glass conforming to the then applicable Australian Standard, whether or not the tenant is responsible for the breakage or damage and notwithstanding the exception to clause 5.1. Materials and workmanship to be to the reasonable satisfaction of the landlord or the managing agent;
- (g) promptly repair or replace window or door fittings (including - but not limited to - frames, handles, fastenings and locks), light fittings, light globes, fluorescent tubes and starters, keys, key cards, and remote controls that are broken, become defective, or are mislaid, notwithstanding the exception to clause 5.1. Replacement parts, materials and workmanship are to be to the reasonable satisfaction of the landlord or the managing agent;
- (h) promptly remove graffiti from the premises, with the exception of that existing at the commencement of the initial term;
- (i) keep the premises free of pests and vermin by engaging qualified contractors approved by the landlord or the managing agent, approval not to be unreasonably withheld.

6. Alterations and additions

6.1 Before -

- (a) making structural alterations or additions to the premises; or
- (b) removing or relocating existing partitions, fixtures or fittings from or within the premises; or
- (c) installing partitions or other fixtures or fittings in the premises; or
- (d) decorating or redecorating the premises;

to obtain the written consent of the landlord or the managing agent.

6.2 Subject to clause 6.3, when giving consent the landlord or the managing agent may impose reasonable conditions. Reasonable conditions include (but are not limited to) provision of full-size approved plans and other working drawings, detailed specifications, complete and legible copies of permits, approvals and/or certificates, engineer reports, insurance, details of materials, and contractors being approved as required by clause 5.5(d).

6.3 The landlord or the managing agent may refuse consent if the giving of it will result in the Landlord having to undertake works to upgrade the premises or the building in which the premises are located to meet then current requirements of building laws.

Code 143

Commercial Lease

7. Notice of accidents to premises/building

7.1 To promptly give written notice to the landlord or to the managing agent on becoming aware of an accident to or a defect in -

- (a) the premises; or
- (b) the building, if affecting access to the premises; or if affecting -
 - (i) water; or
 - (ii) sewerage; or
 - (iii) gas; or
 - (iv) electrical; or
 - (v) essential safety

fixtures and fittings connected to or serving the premises.

8. Inspecting the premises

8.1 The landlord or the managing agent or both may enter and inspect the premises on giving 24 hours prior written notice and at any time without notice, if there is an emergency.

8.2 On inspecting the premises the landlord, the managing agent or both will -

- (a) cause as little inconvenience as possible in the circumstances to the tenant; and may
- (b) bring with them any person, equipment and materials considered appropriate in the circumstances.

9. Tenant to clean, repair and make good damage

9.1 To keep the premises in a thoroughly clean and tidy condition.

9.2 To store rubbish, garbage, and trade waste on the premises in secure containers and have it regularly removed at appropriate intervals.

9.3 To repair and make good to the reasonable satisfaction of the landlord or the managing agent any damage to the premises for which the tenant is responsible under the terms of this lease, within 14 days (or a shorter period if reasonable in the circumstances) after having been given written notice stating the damage.

9.4 The landlord or the managing agent or others on their behalf may enter the premises bringing equipment and materials and repair and make good the damage, if the tenant does not do so within the time stated in the written notice.

9.5 To pay, or repay on demand, to the landlord or the managing agent all reasonable amounts spent in connection with repairing and making good the damage for which the tenant is responsible including (but not limited to) labour, equipment, materials, approvals, permits, certificates, professional services, bank or financiers' charges and interest.

10. Returning the premises to the landlord

10.1 When the term or any over-holding comes to an end (whether by the passing of time or otherwise), to return the premises to the landlord in the required condition and at the time of doing so will have -

- (a) removed the tenant's fixtures and fittings and goods including signage and advertising;
- (b) made good any damage to the premises and/or the building resulting from or arising in connection with the installation or removal of the tenant's fixtures and fittings and goods; and

Code 143 Commercial Lease

(c) reinstated the premises to the condition that existed when the first term of the lease commenced, if there has been a previous term or previous terms; and

(d) cleansed and tidied the premises and the landlord's fixtures and fittings.

10.2 If the tenant does not comply with clause 10.1(a) the landlord or the managing agent may dispose of the tenant's fixtures and fittings and goods in the manner permitted by the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Act 2012 for the disposal of uncollected goods.

10.3 For the avoidance of doubt, "in the required condition" means in a condition consistent with the tenant's due performance of the obligations in clauses 5 and 9 and 11.3.

11. Signs

11.1 Before placing a sign on the premises to -

(a) obtain the written consent of the landlord or the managing agent, which may be subject to reasonable conditions; and

(b) obtain any permit(s) required and keep them current; and

(c) promptly provide a complete, legible copy of any permit(s) to the landlord or the managing agent.

11.2 A sign will comply with the law and be -

(a) displayed as required by the consent and permit(s);

(b) securely fastened;

(c) maintained in good condition; and

(d) removed when the lease ends.

11.3 On removing a sign, to make good damage to the premises or the building caused in connection with its installation or removal.

12. Use of the premises

12.1 If an approval or a consent or a permit or any or all of them is necessary to use the premises for the permitted use, to -

(a) obtain it; and

(b) comply with it; and

(c) keep it current; and

(d) promptly give a complete, legible copy of it and any renewal of it to the landlord or the managing agent.

12.2 To use the premises for the permitted use specified in the Schedule and no other.

12.3 To carry on the permitted use at the premises during the usual business hours for the permitted use.

12.4 Not to discontinue the permitted use either temporarily or permanently, without the prior written consent of the landlord or the managing agent.

12.5 To comply with laws relating to the premises or the permitted use. But structural alterations or additions do not have to be made, unless necessary in connection with the permitted use.

Code 143 Commercial Lease

12.6 In using the premises not to do, allow, or acquiesce in anything that may -

- (a) be illegal; or
- (b) create noise levels above those acceptable from time to time for the permitted use and in any event not use radio, television or other media at a volume audible outside the premises; or
- (c) create a danger or health risk to those on the premises or to the public; or
- (d) create a nuisance or disturb an owner or occupier of adjacent premises or nearby property; or
- (e) result in structural loadings being exceeded; or
- (f) adversely affect the landlord's insurance resulting in -
 - (i) a policy becoming void or voidable; or
 - (ii) a premium or deductible being increased; or
 - (iii) a claim being rejected.

12.7 Not to permit, allow, or acquiesce in an animal, fish, bird, or reptile being on the premises.

12.8 Not to conduct, allow or acquiesce in an auction at or from the premises, without the prior written consent of the landlord or the managing agent.

12.9 Not to hold, allow or acquiesce in the holding of a public meeting at, in or from the premises, without the prior written consent of the landlord or the managing agent.

13. Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 (OHSA)

13.1 The tenant acknowledges and agrees it has management and control of the premises for the purposes of the OHSA.

13.2 To observe and comply with the requirements imposed on the tenant by the OHSA. In particular and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the tenant will maintain free of obstruction all means of entry and exit at, and so far as is reasonably possible in the immediate vicinity of, the premises.

13.3 To give written notice to the landlord or to the managing agent as soon as possible on becoming aware of an actual or a potential issue at, or in the vicinity of, the premises affecting occupational health and safety.

13.4 To hold the landlord and the managing agent indemnified against all costs, expenses, claims, demands, actions, judgements, or orders incurred by or made against the landlord or the managing agent in connection with or in relation to the tenant's failure to observe and comply with the requirements imposed on it by the OHSA and regulations and by this clause.

14. Assignment and sub-letting

14.1 Section 144 of the Property Law Act 1958 does not apply to this lease.

14.2 Not to -

- (a) assign; or
- (b) sub-let; or
- (c) licence; or
- (d) part with occupation of the premises or the tenant's legal or equitable interest in the premises unless the landlord or the managing agent has in each instance given prior written approval.

Code 143 Commercial Lease

14.3 Subject to clause 14.4, the landlord or the managing agent will not unreasonably refuse approval.

14.4 It is not unreasonable for the landlord or the managing agent to refuse approval if -

- (a) the Act will then apply, if it did not apply when consent was sought;
- (b) the permitted use is to change;
- (c) the tenant has unpaid rent or outgoings;
- (d) the tenant has not made good a notified default;
- (e) no, or insufficient, details about the assignee, sub-tenant, licensee or person who will occupy the premise are provided;
- (f) the landlord or the managing agent is of the reasonable opinion the assignee, sub-tenant, licensee or person who will occupy the premises lacks sufficient means, ability, or business experience to carry on the permitted use - or, if it is proposed the permitted use be changed, the permitted use as proposed - and comply with the lease, on the basis of information provided;
- (g) the documents for the assignment, sub-letting, licensing, or parting with occupation are not reasonably acceptable to the landlord, the landlord's managing agent, or Australian legal practitioner or conveyancer;
- (h) all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the landlord in relation to or in connection with giving approval have not been paid by the tenant;
- (i) the tenant, the assignee, sub-tenant, licensee or person taking occupation of the premises has not signed the documents for the transaction, at the time the landlord is to sign the documents;
- (j) the tenant or a guarantor of the tenant will be released from their obligations on the assignment, sub-lease, licence, or parting with occupation;
- (k) if the assignee, sub-tenant, licensee or person taking occupation of the premises is required to provide a guarantee and indemnity in favour of the landlord, the guarantee and indemnity is not in a form approved by the landlord's Australian legal practitioner.

15. Reletting, sale and other rights of entry

15.1 To allow -

- (a) the affixing of "For Lease" and "For Sale" / "Auction" signs to the premises, in positions that do not unreasonably interfere with the tenant's business; and also
- (b) on receiving 24 hours prior written notice, prospective tenants or purchasers, on being accompanied by the landlord or the managing agent, and also valuers, who do not have to be accompanied, to enter and inspect the premises at reasonable times and when doing so to make photographic and video images of the premises; and also
- (c) on receiving 24 hours prior written notice, except if there is an emergency in which case no prior notice is required, others having a contractual right, under a contract with the landlord or the managing agent, to come on to and remain on the premises from time to time with necessary personnel, plant, equipment and materials for the purposes of attending to the landlord's obligations under this lease or obligations under laws applicable to the premises or the building,

16. Security deposit

16.1 Before taking possession of, or being provided with occupation of, the premises and thereafter from time to time during the term or any period of over holding to provide a security deposit in cash or a bank guarantee, as may be required by the landlord, in the amount specified in the Schedule.

16.2 A bank guarantee provided as the security deposit will be -

- (a) in a form reasonably required by the landlord or the managing agent and which does not specify an expiry date;

Code 143 Commercial Lease

- (b) provided by a bank listed by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority as -
 - (i) an Australian-owned bank; or
 - (ii) a foreign subsidiary bank; andin either case
 - (iii) must have an office at Melbourne at which payment will be made, on presentation of the bank guarantee;
 - (c) handed to the landlord or the managing agent as provided in clause 16.1.
- 16.3 The landlord or the managing agent will hold the security deposit and may use it if -
- (a) a payment to be made by the tenant to the landlord is not made within 14 days of the due date for payment;
 - (b) a default is not made good as required by notice;
 - (c) the premises are not returned to the landlord in the required condition when this lease or any over-holding ends.
- 16.4 The landlord or the managing agent is not required to advise the tenant before using the security deposit.
- 16.5 To maintain the security deposit at the required amount during the term and any over-holding.
- 16.6 If the security deposit is not sufficient to -
- (a) meet a payment; or
 - (b) make good a default; or
 - (c) put the premises into the required condition.
- to pay the additional amount required to do so on demand.
- 16.7 Not to fail or refuse to make a payment because it may be met in part or entirely from the security deposit.
- 16.8 If the security deposit is provided in cash, not to permit, allow or acquiesce in a financing statement being registered over it, except by the landlord.
- 16.9 To provide information, sign documents and do anything else required to allow the landlord to -
- (a) register a financing statement over the security deposit; or
 - (b) either comply with obligations or enforce rights or both under the PPSA and even though this lease has expired or come to an end.
- 16.10 Notice of a verification statement under section 157(1) of the PPSA is not required.
- 16.11 If in the reasonable opinion of the landlord or the managing agent the premises are in a clean and tenable condition at the date on which the tenant vacates and the tenant has otherwise complied with the tenant's obligations, the security deposit will be repaid or the bank guarantee returned within 14 days after the date on which the landlord or the managing agent determine the premises are in such a condition.

Code 143

Commercial Lease

17. Interest

- 17.1 To pay interest on any monies payable to the landlord which are not paid on the due day for payment (monies overdue), if demanded.
- 17.2 The rate of interest will be that fixed from time to time under section 2 of the Penalty Interest Rates Act 1983.
- 17.3 Interest will be calculated and charged on the monies overdue from time to time beginning on the day after the day on which payment is due to and including the day on which the monies overdue are paid in full.

18. Landlord's costs and expenses / stamp duty

- 18.1 To pay, or to repay, on demand: -
- (a) The landlord's reasonable managing agent's, legal or conveyancer's costs and out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with -
- (i) the negotiation, preparation, settling and signing of this lease;
 - (ii) a default by the tenant;
 - (iii) a request to give or obtain a consent or an approval, whether or not given or obtained;
 - (iv) a variation, surrender or assignment of this lease;
 - (v) a renewal of this lease;
- (b) Stamp duty (if any) assessed in connection with this lease or a renewal of it.
- 18.2 If the Act applies, the landlord may only recover costs and out-of-pocket expenses as permitted by the Act.

The landlord covenants and agrees with the tenant as follows: -

19. Quiet enjoyment

- 19.1 If the tenant -
- (a) pays the rent, outgoings and other expenses payable by the tenant under the terms of this lease when due; and
- (b) carries out and complies with the tenant's other obligations
- the tenant may, subject to the rights of entry set out in this lease, occupy and use the premises for the permitted use during the term and any over-holding without interruption by the landlord or a person rightfully claiming through, under, or in trust for the landlord.

20. Access to the premises

The tenant may use in common with others the usual means for entering and leaving the premises, during the term or any over-holding.

21. Insurance

To provide the tenant with details of insurance covers taken out by the landlord in relation to the premises, on receiving written request.

The landlord and the tenant covenant and agree with each other as follows -

22. Over-holding

- 22.1 If the tenant does not have an option to renew this lease for a further term or if having an option to renew does not exercise it in the required manner, then if at least 3 months before the term expires, unless otherwise agreed in writing -
- (a) the tenant has not given the landlord written notice of intention to vacate the premises; or
- (b) the landlord has not given the tenant a written notice requiring possession of the premises
- on the day after the day on which the term expires -

Code 143 Commercial Lease

- (i) the tenant will be a tenant from month-to-month; and
- (ii) on the terms and conditions of this lease, so far as they are applicable to a monthly tenancy; and
- (iii) the monthly rent will be the same as that payable when the term expired, unless otherwise agreed; and
- (iv) the landlord may vary the monthly rent on giving one month's prior written notice; and
- (v) the landlord or the tenant may end the tenancy at any time by giving three months prior written notice.

23. Further term

23.1 If the tenant may renew this lease for a further term as specified in the Schedule, the tenant may do so if -

- (a) rent and other payments to be made by the tenant are not in arrears; and
- (b) there is no un-remedied default of which written notice has been given by the landlord; and
- (c) there have been no persistent defaults during the term of which written notices have been given by the landlord; and
- (d) written notice of the renewal dated and signed by the *tenant is given to the landlord or the managing agent not more than 3 months before and no later than 5:00 pm on the last day to exercise the option set out in the Schedule.

(*if there is more than one tenant, each must sign the notice)

23.2 The lease for the further term will be on the terms and conditions of this lease, except -

- (a) this clause 23 will be omitted, if there is no further term; or
- (b) if there is a further term(s) remaining, the lease will be altered to omit the renewed further term;
- (c) if the rent for the further term is to be agreed and there is no agreement within 30 days before the commencement date of the further term then - unless before the 30 days ends some other period of time has been agreed for concluding an agreement about the rent - the rent for the further term will be determined as set out in clause 24.2.

24. Review of the rent to market

24.1 The rent -

- (a) then payable on the terms of this lease; or
- (b) the rent as agreed or determined for the then current further term will be reviewed to the current market rent of the premises (the rent) on each market review date specified in the Schedule.

24.2 If the Act does not apply and the rent for a further term has not been agreed as provided in clause 23.2 (c) or within 60 days after a market review date, the rent will then be determined as set out in this clause, as follows -

- (a) the landlord or the tenant or both may apply to the REIV for the appointment of a valuer to determine the rent;
- (b) the landlord and the tenant will co-operate with one another and with the REIV and do all things required by the REIV so the appointment of a valuer can be made with a minimum of delay;

Code 143 Commercial Lease

- (c) the landlord and the tenant will each pay fifty percent (50%) of the fees and expenses of the REIV in making the appointment and of the valuer in determining the rent, unless other percentages are agreed in writing. If either of them neglects or refuses to pay their share, or a part of it, the other may do so on their behalf and recover the payment on the basis of an account stated;
- (d) the valuer will determine the rent as an expert, on formally accepting the appointment;
- (e) in determining the rent the valuer will not take into account improvements, fixtures and fittings -
 - (i) paid for by the tenant; and
 - (ii) installed by or for the tenant in connection with the permitted use, with the landlord's consent; and
 - (iii) that the tenant has the right to remove when this lease endsunless the landlord and the tenant agree otherwise in writing.
- (f) the landlord and the tenant will co-operate with one another and with the valuer in providing access to the premises and to documents and information in their possession or under their control which the valuer considers relevant to the review;
- (g) subject to sub-clause (d), the valuer will provide the landlord and the tenant with a written determination within a reasonable time;
- (h) the determination must have reasons and set out matters taken into account in the making of it;
- (i) the determination will be final and binding on the landlord and the tenant;
- (j) if the rent has not been agreed or determined by a review date, the tenant will continue to pay the rent then current;
- (k) On the next day for payment of rent following the rent being agreed or the valuer's determination being provided any adjustment required will be made.

25. CPI adjustment of the rent

- 25.1 On each date specified in the Schedule (adjustment date) the rent will be adjusted in line with movements in the CPI using the formula -

$R \text{ equals } A \text{ multiplied by } B \text{ divided by } C$

Where -

"R" is the adjusted rent payable from the adjustment date;

"A" is the rent payable immediately before the adjustment date;

"B" is the CPI for the quarter ended immediately before the adjustment date;

"C" is the CPI for the quarter ended immediately before the previous adjustment date or if there is no previous adjustment date, immediately before the commencement date.

- 25.2 If the CPI for the quarter ended immediately before the adjustment date is not published until after the adjustment date, the adjustment will be made as soon as possible following publication, with the adjustment taking effect on and from the adjustment date. Pending the adjustment, the tenant must continue to pay the rent then current. On the next date for payment of rent following the adjustment, any under payment or over payment will be paid or credited respectively, as the circumstances require.
- 25.3 If the base of the CPI is changed between the commencement date and the first adjustment date or between the adjustment dates any necessary alterations must be made to preserve the continuity of the calculations.

Code 143 Commercial Lease

25.4 If the ABS ceases to publish the CPI the adjustment will be made using the index or other publication substituted for it, any changes being made to preserve the continuity of the calculations. If no index or publication is substituted, the landlord and tenant will agree on an alternative index or publication within 14 days of the adjustment date. If there is no agreement, either the landlord or the tenant or both will request the President of the REIV or his or her nominee (acting as an expert) to determine an appropriate index or publication which reflects changes in the cost of living at Melbourne. The determination will be final and binding.

26. Fixed rent increases

26.1 On each rent increase date specified in the Schedule the annual rent then payable will be increased by the stated percentage or amount.

26.2 On the next day for payment of rent following the rent being increased, the required adjustment will be made.

27. Damage to and destruction of the premises

27.1 If during the term or a period of over holding -

- (a) the premises or a part of the premises are totally or partly damaged or destroyed by any cause so as to be unfit for use and occupation by the tenant; and
- (b) the event causing the damage or destruction was not caused or contributed to by the default of the tenant ; and
- (c) any policy of insurance effected by the landlord has not been vitiated or payment or renewal refused as a result of an act, neglect, or default of the tenant -

then the rent and outgoings - or a fair and reasonable proportion having regard to the nature and extent of the damage or destruction or to any interference with the permitted use of premises by the tenant - will be suspended or cease to be payable, so long as the premises are unfit for occupation and use.

27.2 If there is a dispute about the proportion or the period of abatement the landlord and the tenant agree it will be referred to arbitration under the Commercial Arbitration Act 2011 and abatement will be in full satisfaction of all claims for damages by the tenant against the landlord.

27.3 Notwithstanding clause 27.2, if the premises are totally or substantially destroyed and not re-instated within 3 months from the date on which the destruction occurred the landlord or the tenant may by written notice elect to end this lease and from the date of the giving of the notice all claims under this lease, except for those which have arisen before that date, will be at an end.

28. Cessation of building services

Except in the case of voluntary withdrawal by the landlord or provided by the Act (if applicable), no damages, compensation or abatement of the rent will be claimed by the tenant or allowed by the landlord for the cessation of, damage to, or the failure or breakdown of any services provided in or to the building. "Services" include, but are not limited to, electricity, gas, water, sprinklers, alarms, pumps, air conditioning, heating, cooling or ventilation equipment, hot water service, cleaning, lifts or escalators.

29. Personal Property Security Act 2009 (PPSA)

29.1 The landlord and the tenant agree this lease is a security interest for the purposes of the PPSA.

29.2 The tenant will not register or allow or acquiesce in the registration of financing statement by any person, with the exception of the landlord, for goods provided by the landlord at or in connection with the premises.

Code 143 Commercial Lease

- 29.3 The landlord may register a financing statement for a security interest arising because of this lease over goods provided by the landlord at or in connection with the premises, or the tenant's fixtures, fittings and/or goods not removed from the premises when this lease ends that are personal property.
- 29.4 The tenant waives the right to receive a notice in relation to registration events to which section 157(1)(a) of the PPSA applies.
- 29.5 The landlord and the tenant agree they will not disclose information in the nature of that referred to in section 275(1) of the PPSA.
- 29.6 When this lease ends and the tenant has vacated the premises and returned them to the landlord in the condition required by this lease (or as may be otherwise agreed in writing), or on an assignment in accordance with the terms of this lease the landlord will register a financing change statement for a security interest of the landlord, with the exception of a security interest registered for goods provided by the landlord at or in connection with the premises.
- 29.7 The tenant will sign all documents and do all things necessary to allow the landlord to register a financing statement and enforce its rights and meet its obligations under the PPSA and this clause. If the tenant is an individual, the tenant will provide his or her date of birth and a certified copy of his or her current driver's licence or birth certificate in confirmation. The landlord will not use the certified copy for any other purpose and will return it to the tenant on request.
- 29.8 The tenant will pay on demand the landlord's reasonable costs and expenses incurred in relation to or in connection with matters referred to in this clause.

30. Indemnity by the tenant

The landlord will not be liable for any damage or injury to the premises or to the tenant or the tenant's property or to the property of the tenant's employees, contractors, agents, licensees or invitees as a result of any happening not attributable to the negligence of the landlord. To the extent permitted by law, the tenant indemnifies and agrees to keep the landlord indemnified in respect of and in connection with all claims, actions, suits, demands, judgements or costs arising from or related to such damage or injury.

31. Notices

- 31.1 A notice to be given by the landlord or the tenant is to be in writing and is to be dated and signed by the giver of it.
- 31.2 A notice is given to the party to whom it is addressed (recipient) by -
- (a) delivering it; or
 - (b) posting it by pre-paid post; or
 - (c) sending it by electronic communication (email)
- to the address or to the email address (as the case requires) of the recipient, set out in the Schedule.
- 31.3 A notice that is delivered is given on delivery. But if delivery takes place outside normal business hours the notice is deemed given at 9:00 am on the next business day at the place of delivery.
- 31.4 A notice that is posted is given -
- (a) if posted by express post, on the next business day; or
 - (b) if posted by priority post, on the fourth business day; or
 - (c) if posted by regular post, on the sixth business day
- after the day on which the notice is posted.
- 31.5 A notice sent by email is given when it first becomes capable of being retrieved as provided in section 13A

Code 143 Commercial Lease

(2) of the Electronic Transactions (Victoria) Act 2000. If that occurs outside normal business hours the notice is deemed given at 9:00 am on the next business day.

31.6 For the purpose of giving a notice -

- (a) "normal business hours" means between the hours of 9:00 am and 5:00 pm inclusive on a business day; and
- (b) "business day" means a day other than Saturday, Sunday or a day declared as a public holiday at the street address of the recipient set out in the Schedule.

32. Electronic Transactions (Victoria) Act 2000 (ETVA)

32.1 For the purposes of Part 2, Division 2, section 8 of the ETVA the landlord and the tenant acknowledge it is reasonable to expect that information or a notice or both to be given by either of them to the other by means of an electronic communication will be readily accessible so as to be useable for subsequent reference and consent to information or a notice or both being given to them by means of an electronic communication.

32.2 For the purpose of the giving of a notice which requires a signature and will be given in the body of or as an attachment to an email, the signature of the person to the notice will be a sufficient signature if typed in a legible font.

33. Rules

33.1 The landlord or the managing agent on behalf of the landlord may make rules or regulations or both for the management, use, or occupation of the Building or for all these purposes, but they must not be inconsistent with the rights of the tenant as set out in this Lease or the Act, if the Act applies.

33.2 The landlord or the managing agent on behalf of the landlord may revoke or alter rules or regulations or substitute other rules or regulations for those then current.

33.3 The tenant will from time to time comply with the rules or regulations and rules of an owners corporation (if applicable) - whether original, altered or substituted - starting on the date of being given notice of them.

34. Defaults by the tenant

34.1 The landlord may terminate this lease by re-entry or forfeiture if the tenant fails to remedy a breach of this lease within 14 days after being given a notice complying with section 146(1) of the Property Law Act 1958, but no notice is required before re-entry or forfeiture in the case of non-payment of rent.

34.2 The tenant is in breach of this lease if -

- (a) the rent or outgoings or both are not paid on the due dates for payment although no legal or formal demand has been made; or
- (b) the tenant otherwise fails to observe and perform the covenants on its part to be observed and performed;
- (c) being a company -
 - (i) an order is made or a resolution passed for its winding-up, other than for the purposes of reconstruction or amalgamation; or
 - (ii) a provisional receiver, receiver, or receiver and manager is appointed; or
 - (iii) it is placed under official management; or
 - (iv) it goes into liquidation; or
 - (v) control of the company changes, without the prior written consent of the landlord, unless the tenant is a company listed on an Australian stock exchange in which case consent is not required;
- (d) the tenant fails to satisfy a judgement entered against it within the time specified in the judgement to do so;
- (e) the tenant being an individual commits an act of bankruptcy;

Code 143 Commercial Lease

- (f) a guarantor of the tenant who is an individual commits an act of bankruptcy or, if the guarantor is a company, any of the matters set out in clause 34.2 (c) occurs.
- (g) the tenant ceases to use premises for the permitted use or permits or acquiesces in the premises ceasing to be used for the permitted use;
- (h) the tenant closes the premises during normal business hours for the permitted use or permits or acquiesces in the premises being closed for business during normal business hours for the permitted use;
- (i) the premises are unoccupied for a period exceeding 14 days during the term or a period of over holding.

34.3 If the landlord terminates this lease, the landlord may sue the tenant for unpaid monies or damages or both, including for damages representing the benefit of this lease receivable if the term had continued and expired by the passing of time.

35. Repudiation of this lease by the tenant

Clauses 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 12, 14 and 16 are essential provisions of this lease. If the tenant breaches an essential provision it is a repudiation which the landlord may accept. If the landlord does not accept a repudiation of an essential provision it does not prevent the landlord accepting a subsequent repudiation of the same or another essential provision.

36. Disputes

- 36.1 A dispute must be resolved in accordance with Part 10 of the Act, if the Act applies.
- 36.2 A party to a retail tenancy dispute may be represented by a legal practitioner or practitioners of their choice, unless the dispute is one to which clause 36.3 applies.
- 36.3 A dispute between the tenant and another tenant or occupier of the Building about the use of the premises or the Building must be promptly referred by the tenant to the landlord or the landlord's managing agent for determination. Unless the Act applies, the determination of the landlord or the landlord's managing agent will be binding and the tenants or occupiers have no right to legal representation.
- 36.4 In determining a dispute under clause 36.3, the landlord or the managing agent is not required to strictly comply with the rules of natural justice and the laws or rules of evidence do not apply and they may inform themselves as they see fit with the intent the dispute will be determined in a reasonable manner as speedily, informally, and inexpensively as possible.

37. Goods and Services Tax

- 37.1 "GST" means GST within the meaning of the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 as amended (GST Act).
- 37.2 Expressions used in this clause 37 and the GST Act have the same meaning as in the GST Act.
- 37.3 Except where this Lease states otherwise, each amount payable by a party under this Lease in respect of a taxable supply by the other party is expressed as a GST exclusive amount and the recipient of the supply must, in addition to that amount and at the same time, pay to the supplier the GST payable in respect of the supply.
- 37.4 An amount payable by the tenant in respect of a creditable acquisition by the landlord from a third party must not exceed the sum of the value of the landlord's acquisition and the additional amount payable by the tenant under clause 37.3 on account of the landlord's GST liability.
- 37.5 A party is not obliged, under clause 37.3, to pay GST on a taxable supply to it under this Lease, until given a valid tax invoice for the supply.
- 37.6 If during the term or period of over holding the landlord registers, or is required to be registered, for GST under the GST Act, then on and from the date the landlord registers, or is required to be registered, for GST under the GST Act clauses 37.3, 37.4 and 37.5 will apply to each amount payable by a party under this lease in respect of a taxable supply by the other party or an amount payable by the tenant in respect of a creditable acquisition.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

1. This lease is offered subject to final approval and acceptance in writing by the Landlord.
2. The Tenant acknowledges that;
 - a. This Lease and the Disclosure Statement (if the Act applies) are/is the entire agreement of the parties concerning the subject matter of this Lease;
 - b. There is no other agreement, understanding, warranty or representation, whether oral or written, binding the parties concerning any aspect of this Lease.
3. The Tenant acknowledges and declares that they have leased the property as a result of their own inspection and inquiry. The Tenant acknowledges that no promises, representation, warranty or undertaking has been made in relation to the potential suitability of the premises (eg building area, zoning, services available etc) for the proposed Tenant's intended use by or on behalf of the Owner or its Agents or its Consultants. It is the Tenant's responsibility to make the necessary enquiries with all relevant authorities to obtain a Permit (if required) for the permitted use of the premises.
4. The Tenant shall within fourteen (14) days from the commencement date, supply to the Landlord or the Agent herein, written notification and photographic documentation (if necessary), of any damage, malfunction or omission in regards to any fixture, fitting or structure in the premises. Failure to do so shall constitute admission by the Tenant as to the fact that the premises were in good order, clean and tidy and in good repair at the commencement of occupancy. The Tenant's attention is specifically drawn to clauses 5, 9,11 herein.
5. Indemnity
 - a. The Tenant occupies the Premises and uses the Building and land at their own risk.
 - b. The Tenant is liable for and also indemnifies the Landlord and his agent for:
 - i. any breach of any environmental laws or occupational health and safety laws by the Tenant or its employees, agents or invitees; and
 - ii. overflow, leakage or escape of water (including rain water), gas, electricity or any other substance in or from the premises that are caused by the negligence of the Tenant.
 - c. Each indemnity is independent from the Tenant's other obligations and continues during this Lease and after it expires or is terminated. The Landlord may enforce an indemnity before incurring expense.
6. Amending this Lease, an amendment or change is only effective once it is:
 - a. made in writing; and
 - b. executed by all parties.
7. Use of Premises: Without limiting clause 12 the Tenant acknowledges the responsibility to make enquiries with all relevant authorities to obtain a Permit (if applicable) for the permitted use of the premise.
8. Maintenance of the Premises
 - a. Upon the commencement of this lease, and during any extension or further term, the Tenant will enter into and keep in force a service agreement with a recognised firm of contractors to service and maintain the Landlord's fixtures and chattels which form part of the demised premises. The Tenant to pay the costs associated with the said maintenance agreement(s). The Tenant acknowledges that lack of maintenance on the Tenant's part does not constitute fair wear and tear.
 - b. The Tenant agrees to replace all plate glass windows and other glass in the said premises which may be cracked or broken during the said term. Where any claim is made under an insurance policy held by the Landlord, the Tenant shall be liable for any excess so payable and shall pay to the Landlord upon demand.
9. Termination of Lease
 - a. If on the determination of this lease the Tenant is in default of any payments due to the Landlord pursuant to this lease, the security deposit may be applied towards those payments accrued due until the date of determination of this lease.
 - b. In addition to the obligation of the Tenant under Clause 10 and 16.11 the Tenant agrees that this Lease does not terminate and rental and outgoings continue to be payable until reinstatement of the property is completed to the Landlord's/Agent's satisfaction and keys are returned to the Landlord/Agent.

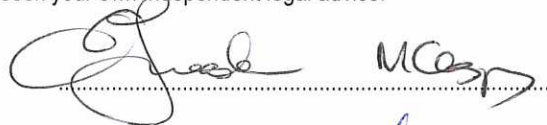

- c. It is the Tenant's responsibility when vacating the premises to ensure that all electrical wiring from which lights, machines or any electrical appliance have been disconnected, are properly terminated by a qualified electrician who must provide a Certificate of Electrical compliance.
10. Tenant Works
- a. Subject to and in accordance with Clauses 6 and 10, the Tenant undertakes to complete any works in a proper workmanlike manner in accordance with all requirements of any relevant authority.
 - b. Furthermore should any works include the penetration of walls/roof/ceilings etc. (eg: for exhaust flues/ducting etc.), then at the termination of this tenancy the Tenant undertakes to professionally have the walls/roof/ceilings etc. reinstated to their original condition by using full sheets (not patches) of the relevant material and provide where applicable Certificate/s of Compliance
 - c. Furthermore the Landlord reserves the right to engage an independent contractor to inspect the works the cost of which will be payable by the Tenant.
11. Building Operating Expenses; In addition to the obligation of the Tenant under Clauses 2.1(f)(j) and 3 the Tenant acknowledges that the Landlord may elect at any time during the term of this lease to take out relevant contracts for the Building Operating/Service Expenses and seek reimbursement of same from the Tenant. These contracts may cover, but not be limited to the maintenance of fire equipment, roller shutter doors, air-conditioning systems, cranes, exit signs, essential service requirements etc.
12. In accordance with Clause 5.5 (i) the Tenant is responsible for the extermination of all pests including but not limited to mice, rats, fleas, cockroaches, wasps, birds, ants etc.
13. The Tenant will immediately repair defective windows, light fittings, doors, locks and fastenings, and replace missing or inoperative light-globes and fluorescent tubes, keys and keycards.
14. Payments of all monies during the tenancy will be allocated to the oldest debt or at the discretion of the Landlord or its agent.
15. The Tenant shall pay to the Landlord or his agent all reasonable costs, charges and expenses in re-leasing the premises, should the Tenant assign the lease or vacate the premises during the term of the lease. These costs, charges or expenses may be payable up front where they will be held in Trust until the Premises is leased and they fall due. All advertising costs are payable upon signing of any Leasing Authority.
16. Retail Leases Act
- a. If the Act applies, the Tenant acknowledges receiving a full copy of the REIV Lease, Disclosure Statement and Information Brochure seven (7) days before signing this agreement.
 - b. If the Act does not apply, the Tenant represents and warrants to the Landlord that the Tenant is not and will not use the Premises to carry on a business involving the sale or hire of goods by retail or the provision of retail services.
17. Insurance; The Tenant acknowledges that in addition to their obligations under clause 4 it is the Tenant's Responsibility to:
- a. pay any increase/loading in the insurance premium as required by the said insurer in the event the current insurance rate is altered due to their use of the premises (as stipulated in the lease schedule)
 - b. take out business interruption insurance to protect it from loss in circumstances where it may be unable to carry on business in the premises. The Tenant also acknowledges that the Landlord's insurance does not cover the Tenant's contents, stock or business interruption insurance for these premises; and
 - c. take out appropriate insurance cover on the Tenant's and/or third party's contents. The contents shall include, but not be limited to, machinery, equipment, stock or trade, furniture, chattels, fixtures and fittings and all other items brought into the Premises.
 - d. pay any excesses and GST that are payable as a result of any insurance claim made under the Landlord's policy.
18. Security Deposit
- a. The Security Deposit (may at anytime, at the Landlord's discretion, be the greater of the amount shown in the Schedule or equivalent to 1 Month Rental plus a GST component.

- b. During the term of the lease the Landlord may use the deposit to remedy breaches of this lease (or any of the events specified in clause 2.1(h)) and the Tenant must pay whatever further amount is required to bring the deposit back to the required level.
 - c. The security deposit is to be paid by cash or EFT cleared funds into the agents trust account prior to the lessee taking possession to the premises.
19. Occupational Health & Safety and Essential Safety Measures
- a. Without limiting the operation of any provision of this Lease, the Tenant agrees, at its cost to ensure to the maximum extent permitted by law, that the Tenant and all persons under its control will not do or fail to do anything which may result in the Landlord being in breach of any obligation imposed on the Landlord in respect of the Premises under the Occupational Health & Safety Act 2004, the Building Act 1993 (Vic), the Building Regulations 2006 and the Building Code of Australia and hereby releases the Landlord from and indemnifies the Landlord against any claim resulting from any act or failure to act by the Tenant.
 - b. The Tenant acknowledges:
 - i. It has management and control of the premises; and
 - ii. It will give notice to the Landlord or the Landlord's Managing Agent named in this Lease of any incidents occurring of an occupational Health and Safety nature.
20. Rent Free Period
- a. Subject to this special condition, the Tenant will not be liable for Rent for the period 01/08/2017 to 14/09/2017. Thus rental payments shall be payable from the Rent commencement date as set out in the Schedule 15/09/2017. All outgoings shall be payable from the Outgoings commencement date of the term as set out in the schedule of this lease 01/08/2017.
 - b. However, if the Tenant is in breach or commits a default of the Lease at any time during the Term, and fails to remedy the breach/default within fourteen (14) days after receiving written notice, then this special condition will not apply and the Tenant must pay to the Landlord upon written demand the Rental for the period described in paragraph (a).
 - c. This special condition will not apply to any further term of the Lease.
21. The Lessor allows the use of the 6 car spaces allocated on title to the exclusive use of the Lessee.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT BY LANDLORD AND TENANT:

The lease sets out the rights and duties of both the LANDLORD and TENANT. By signing this you acknowledge that you have read and understand the terms and conditions of the Lease. In the case of the Landlord or the Tenant being a registered Company this acknowledgement confirms that the Company Seal has been affixed in accordance with the Articles of Association of the Company. Whilst due care and attention has been taken in preparation of the Lease we recommend you carefully check the document and should you have any concerns you should seek your own independent legal advice.

Guarantee and Indemnity

IN CONSIDERATION of the Lessor named in the attached Lease (the Lessor) having agreed at the request of

Mark Courtney Trevaskis & Elaine Christine Trevaskis both of 3A Powys Drive Beaumaris 3193

(together called the Guarantor) to enter into the attached Lease (the Lease) with the Lessee named in the Lease (the Lessee), the Guarantor Guarantees the performance by the Lessee of all terms, covenants and conditions contained in the Lease and the punctual payment by the Lessee to the Lessor of the rental and all other moneys payable by the Lessee under the Lease and all costs and damages which may be payable by the Lessee on any default, repudiation or otherwise. Furthermore, as a separate and independent obligation, the Guarantor Indemnifies the Lessor and agrees to keep the Lessor always indemnified against all loss arising out of or relating to the Lease including without limitation all losses, costs, charges, damages and expenses which the Lessor may incur for or by reason of any default by the Lessee or by reason of the termination of the Lease for any reason and further agrees that any moneys which are not recoverable for any reason (including without limitation disability, immunity, infancy, incapacity or any Statute of Limitations), whether or not the Lessor knew or ought to have known, shall be recoverable from the Guarantor as sole or principal debtor and shall be paid to the Lessor on demand.

- 1.1 The Guarantor agrees that the liability of the Guarantor shall not be abrogated, prejudiced or affected by:-
 - (a) Any postponement, forbearance or other concession granted to the Lessee or to any other person nor any compounding or full or partial release or discharge of the Lessee or any other person from liability under this Guarantee and Indemnity or from any other right of the Lessor against the Lessee or any compromise, abandonment, waiver, variation, relinquishment or renewal of the Lease, any securities or assets or by any act, neglect or omission by the Lessor in exercise of the powers and discretions vested in the Lessor by or under the Lease;
 - (b) A judgement against the Lessee in any Court;
 - (c) The Liquidation of the Lessee or any other person;
 - (d) Any other person or corporation whether or not named in this Guarantee and Indemnity giving or failing to give an indemnity or guarantee of the Lessee's obligations to the Lessor;
 - (e) The liability of the Lessee ceasing for any cause or any indemnity, guarantee or security to secure the obligation being released or discharged or being void, defective or informal;
 - (f) Any assignment by the Lessee of its interest in the Lease to another person or corporation;
 - (g) Any alteration, variation, addition or modification to or of the Lease or this Guarantee and Indemnity and whether or not the Lessee and/or the Guarantor have specifically agreed or consented;
 - (h) The failure or omission by the Lessor to give notice to the Guarantor of any default by the Lessee under the Lease; or
 - (j) Anything else which under the law relating to sureties would, but for this provision, have the effect of releasing the Guarantor.
- 1.2 This Guarantee and Indemnity shall be a continuing guarantee and indemnity and shall remain in full force until the full amount for which the Guarantor is liable under the Lease has been paid to the Lessor and shall be enforceable by the Lessor without first taking any steps or proceedings against the Lessee. Despite the termination or expiration of the Lease, the Lessor may determine if and when it shall enforce or refrain from enforcing this Guarantee and Indemnity.
- 1.3 The liability of the Guarantor under this Guarantee and Indemnity shall extend to all amounts which:-
 - (a) May be payable by the Lessee to the Lessor for any period during which the Lessee overholds under the Lease or otherwise remains in occupation of the Premises notwithstanding that the Term of the Lease has expired or may otherwise have terminated;
 - (b) may be payable by the Lessee to the Lessor under any equitable lease which may arise on the exercise by the Lessee of any option for a Further Term contained in the Lease; or
 - (c) the Lessor has been paid by the Lessee but which the Lessor is obliged to repay on the ground of preference or otherwise.
- 1.4 The Guarantor covenants that there is a benefit accruing to the Guarantor as a result of the Lessor entering into the Lease with the Lessee.
- 1.5 Any notice required or permitted under this Guarantee and Indemnity shall, in addition to any method prescribed by law, be deemed to have been validly given in accordance with the procedures referred to in Clause 3(1) of the Lease.
- 1.6 It is the intention of the parties that where the context so admits:-
 - (a) the singular includes the plural and the masculine gender includes the feminine and neuter genders;
 - (b) the expressions 'Guarantor', 'Lessor' and 'Lessee' when used in reference to an individual or individuals, shall be deemed to include and also to refer to his, her or their respective heirs, executors, administrators and transferees and when used in reference to a body corporate shall be deemed to include and also to refer to the successors and permitted assigns of the body corporate. The expression 'Lessor' shall also include the registered proprietor or proprietors from time to time of the Premises referred to in the Lease;
 - (c) A reference to 'Liquidation' includes official management, receivership, appointment or an administrator, deregistration, winding up, dissolution, assignment for the benefit of or compromise, arrangement, composition or moratorium with creditors generally or any class of creditors, deed of company arrangement, insolvency, bankruptcy or a similar procedure or, where applicable, changes in the constitution of any partnership or person or death.

(d) Where there is more than one Guarantor, the liability of the Guarantors shall be joint and several.

- 1.1 The Guarantor agrees that the liability of the Guarantor shall not be abrogated, prejudiced or affected by:-
- (a) Any postponement, forbearance or other concession granted to the Lessee or to any other person nor any compounding or full or partial release or discharge of the Lessee or any other person from liability under this Guarantee and Indemnity or from any other right of the Lessor against the Lessee or any compromise, abandonment, waiver, variation, relinquishment or renewal of the Lease, any securities or assets or by any act, neglect or omission by the Lessor in exercise of the powers and discretions vested in the Lessor by or under the Lease;
 - (b) A judgement against the Lessee in any Court;
 - (c) The Liquidation of the Lessee or any other person;
 - (d) Any other person or corporation whether or not named in this Guarantee and Indemnity giving or failing to give an indemnity or guarantee of the Lessee's obligations to the Lessor;
 - (e) The liability of the Lessee ceasing for any cause or any indemnity, guarantee or security to secure the obligation being released or discharged or being void, defective or informal;
 - (f) Any assignment by the Lessee of its interest in the Lease to another person or corporation;
 - (g) Any alteration, variation, addition or modification to or of the Lease or this Guarantee and Indemnity and whether or not the Lessee and/or the Guarantor have specifically agreed or consented;
 - (h) The failure or omission by the Lessor to give notice to the Guarantor of any default by the Lessee under the Lease; or
 - (j) Anything else which under the law relating to sureties would, but for this provision, have the effect of releasing the Guarantor.
- 1.2 This Guarantee and Indemnity shall be a continuing guarantee and indemnity and shall remain in full force until the full amount for which the Guarantor is liable under the Lease has been paid to the Lessor and shall be enforceable by the Lessor without first taking any steps or proceedings against the Lessee.
