The taxation of benefits to a member

- 5.3 Where a superannuation benefit is paid to a member, either as a lump sum commutation of a pension or direct pension payment it will be taxed as follows:
- (a) Tax-free Component - Any tax-free component payable is always tax-free when received by the member, irrespective of their age. This includes both lump sums and income streams.
 - (b) Taxable Component – The following table highlights the taxation treatment of taxable benefits payable to a member. It should be noted that the preservation age for a person born prior to 1960 is age 55.
 - (c) Untaxed Component – untaxed component is only found in SMSFs with life insurance and a lump sum is paid to a dependant or the member’s legal estate in the event of the member’s death.

Taxation of the Taxable Component

Type of Benefit	Under preservation age	Between preservation age and age 60	Age 60 and over
Lump sum	20%	Tax free up to the low rate cap amount with any remainder taxed up to a maximum rate of 15% (excluding Medicare levy)	Tax free
Income stream	Marginal tax rate	Marginal tax rate - 15% tax offset	Tax free

SMSF Trust Deed

- 5.4 The fund’s trust deed is the key determinant to what type of pension may be paid from the fund and should be reviewed (and potentially updated), prior to any income stream being commenced.

Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure

ELECTRONIC RECORD AND SIGNATURE DISCLOSURE

From time to time, Connectus Accountants (we, us or Company) may be required by law to provide to you certain written notices or disclosures. Described below are the terms and conditions for providing to you such notices and disclosures electronically through the DocuSign system. Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to this Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure (ERSD), please confirm your agreement by selecting the check-box next to 'I agree to use electronic records and signatures' before clicking 'CONTINUE' within the DocuSign system.

Getting paper copies

At any time, you may request from us a paper copy of any record provided or made available electronically to you by us. You will have the ability to download and print documents we send to you through the DocuSign system during and immediately after the signing session and, if you elect to create a DocuSign account, you may access the documents for a limited period of time (usually 30 days) after such documents are first sent to you. After such time, if you wish for us to send you paper copies of any such documents from our office to you, you will be charged a $0.00 per-page fee. You may request delivery of such paper copies from us by following the procedure described below.

Withdrawing your consent

If you decide to receive notices and disclosures from us electronically, you may at any time change your mind and tell us that thereafter you want to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format. How you must inform us of your decision to receive future notices and disclosure in paper format and withdraw your consent to receive notices and disclosures electronically is described below.

Consequences of changing your mind

If you elect to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format, it will slow the speed at which we can complete certain steps in transactions with you and delivering services to you because we will need first to send the required notices or disclosures to you in paper format, and then wait until we receive back from you your acknowledgment of your receipt of such paper notices or disclosures. Further, you will no longer be able to use the DocuSign system to receive required notices and consents electronically from us or to sign electronically documents from us.

All notices and disclosures will be sent to you electronically

Unless you tell us otherwise in accordance with the procedures described herein, we will provide electronically to you through the DocuSign system all required notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements, and other documents that are required to be provided or made available to you during the course of our relationship with you. To reduce the chance of you inadvertently not receiving any notice or disclosure, we prefer to provide all of the required notices and disclosures to you by the same method and to the same address that you have given us. Thus, you can receive all the disclosures and notices electronically or in paper format through the paper mail delivery system. If you do not agree with this process, please let us know as described below. Please also see the paragraph immediately above that describes the consequences of your electing not to receive delivery of the notices and disclosures electronically from us.
