You no longer need to pay PAYG instalments

To whom it may concern,

Based on the information you reported in your latest income tax return, you won't need to pay any pay as you go (PAYG) instalments from January 2020.

What you need to do

You still need to lodge and pay any activity statements or instalment notices that haven't been lodged or paid by their due date.

You can voluntarily re-enter PAYG instalments

If you want to keep paying instalments, you can choose to re-enter the PAYG instalments system.

The easiest way to re-enter and manage your PAYG instalments is by using our online services. You can view, lodge, pay, vary and manage all your PAYG instalment obligations in one place. All you need is a secure login to use our online services, such as the Business Portal. You can also use your standard business reporting (SBR) enabled accounting software to prepare and lodge. You can find more information on our website at ato.gov.au/onlineservices
