Privacy
The ATO is authorised by the Taxation Administration Act 1953 to request the provision of tax file numbers (TFNs). The ATO will use the TFNs to identify each partner or beneficiary or entity in our records. It is not an offence not to provide the TFNs. However, you cannot lodge your tax return electronically if you do not quote your TFN.

Taxation law authorises the ATO to collect information and disclose it to other government agencies, including personal information about the person authorised to sign the declaration. For information about privacy go to ato.gov.au/privacy

The Australian Business Register
The Commissioner of Taxation, as Registrar of the Australian Business Register, may use the ABN and business details which you provide on this tax return to maintain the integrity of the register.

Please refer to the privacy statement on the Australian Business Register (ABR) website (www.abr.gov.au) for further information - it outlines our commitment to safeguarding your details.

Electronic funds transfer - direct debit
Where you have requested an EFT direct debit some of your details will be provided to your financial institution and the Tax Office's sponsor bank to facilitate the payment of your taxation liability from your nominated account.

I authorise my tax agent to electronically transmit this tax return via an approved ATO electronic channel.

Important: Before making this declaration please check to ensure that all income has been disclosed and the tax return is true and correct in every detail. If you are in doubt about any aspect of the tax return, place all the facts before the Tax Office. The tax law provides heavy penalties for false or misleading statements on tax returns.

Declaration: I declare that:
* all the information I have provided to my registered tax agent for the preparation of this tax return, including any applicable schedules is true and correct, and
* I authorise the agent to give this document to the Commissioner of Taxation.

Note: It is not an offence not to quote a TFN for a beneficiary. However, TFNs help the ATO to correctly identify each beneficiary's tax records. The ATO is authorised by the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 and the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 to ask for information in this tax return. We need this information to help administer the tax laws. To make a correct Trustee Beneficiary (TB) statement you must quote the TFN of a resident trustee beneficiary of a closely held trust.

Note: If the trust needs to provide annual reports under the Trustee Beneficiary Rules or the TFN withholding rules you will be able to do so by completing the information in the statement of distribution.
