You made excess concessional (before tax) super contributions in 2018-19

Dear MR LANGTON

There is a cap on the amount of concessional (before tax) contributions you can make to your super each financial year without having to pay extra tax.

In the 2018-19 financial year, you have contributed more than the cap. This excess amount has been added to your income and we have updated your income tax notice of assessment. An excess concessional contributions charge has been applied as shown in the determination below.

Your determination

Your concessional contributions cap	$25,000.00
Your concessional contributions	$27,346.89
Your excess concessional contributions	$2,346.89
Your excess concessional contributions charge	$60.79
Period for which your charge was calculated	1 July 2018 to 20 April 2020

Further information

Excess concessional contributions charge

We apply an excess concessional contributions charge because the tax on excess concessional contributions is collected later than normal income tax.

For more information about excess concessional contributions charge rate, visit our website, www.ato.gov.au/eccchargerate

Objection rights

You can write to us and object to the assessment if you disagree with the determination.

For more information about objections, visit our website, www.ato.gov.au/objections

If you disagree with our decision on your objection you can apply for an independent, external review. When we give you our decision we will let you know if you can apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for a review or appeal to the Federal Court.

What you need to do

You must complete the following three steps:

- Step 1 Pay your excess concessional contributions charge of $60.79 by 25 May 2020 using the payment methods on your statement of account.
- Step 2 Pay any income tax you owe by the due date as shown on your notice of assessment.
- Step 3 Choose one of the following options for your excess concessional contributions by 30 June 2020.

Option 1 – Do nothing and leave the excess in your super fund(s)

The excess amount will count towards your non-concessional (after tax) contributions, which also has an annual cap.

Option 2 – Release the excess from your super fund(s)

Release up to $1,994.85 from your super fund(s) (your excess less 15% tax paid by the fund). Any amount you release will be increased by the 15% tax paid by the fund and will no longer count towards your non-concessional (after tax) contributions.

To release money from your super fund(s) log into myGov and complete the Excess concessional contributions election form by 30 June 2020.

When you complete the election form we will ask your nominated super fund(s) to release the amount you nominated and send the money to us. We will use the money to pay any tax or Australian government debts and refund any remaining balance to you.

If you are not already registered, go to www.ato.gov.au/onlineservices to register. Alternatively you can download the form via our website www.ato.gov.au/ecelectionform or order the form via our website www.ato.gov.au/onlineordering and send it to us.
