RE: Lost investments 2000 - 2016

Dear Sir/Madam,

After significant phone calls, we have been advised to send a request in writing to see if historical information on investments we owned is available.

The investments were held in a variety of companies that have all been bought out by ANZ before OnePath was split from ANZ. The investments were entered into via a financial planner (David Hobbs) who has since retired; as such, we are finding it difficult to provide account numbers/accurate information relating to the investments. Please be aware that some descriptions are only available from a previous accountant's records and may not be accurate.

Details below, any information we have has been provided.
