Client's rights in relation to legal costs under s.331 of the Legal Profession Act 2007 (Qld)

If you are not happy with this invoice you may (1) request an itemised account (2) discuss your concerns with us (3) have our costs assessed or (4) apply to the Supreme Court to set aside any Costs agreement. If you choose to have our costs assessed, you have 12 months to apply for a costs assessment from the time the invoice was given to you (or you were asked for payment, or when you paid the costs if you did not get an invoice or a request to pay). However a cost assessor or the Court may decide that an invoice can be assessed even if the application for assessment is made out of time after considering the reasons for delay. There may be other avenues available in your state or territory (such as mediation). For more information about your rights, please read the fact sheet entitled 'Legal Costs - Your Right to Know'. You can ask us for a copy, or obtain it from the Qld Law Society or download it from their website. We reserve the right to charge interest on overdue accounts at the rate equal to the Cash Rate Target set by the Reserve Bank of Australia (as at the date of this invoice) plus 6%. This is a benchmark rate of interest. Individual liability limited by a scheme approved under professional standards legislation.
