If you wish to view and update your US account information online, you will need to register and establish your online access to the share register through Investor Center, Computershare's web based tool for shareholders. Go to Investor Center at www.computershare.com/investor and click on 'Create Login'; you will need your Holder Account Number located on your DRS advice or your US Social Security number. On Investor Center, you may also enroll in eDelivery or sell your shares, amongst other options.

Upon establishing your online access to the US share register, your account verification code will be mailed to your address. This verification code serves as an additional layer of security for protecting your assets. Please allow at least fifteen business days for delivery. Once you receive your verification code and enter it upon your next login to Investor Center, you will have full view and transactional access to your account. If you need assistance prior to receipt of your verification code, please contact Computershare at the telephone number on this letter.

DRS Sale Facility

You may sell your shares through your US broker, or via the DRS sale facility, administered by Computershare. Details of the DRS facility, the types of orders you can place and the terms and conditions of that facility are enclosed. Sale orders can be placed by filling out the attached transaction slip or online, once you register for Investor Center access and have received your account verification code. Alternatively, you can contact Computershare if you require assistance.
