PIN and Pass Code Security:

To guard against unauthorised electronic transactions you should adhere to the security guidelines below.

- Do not select a PIN or Pass Code that represents your birth date, phone number or a recognisable part of your name.
- Never write down or keep a record of your PIN or Pass Code on or with anything that is also needed to perform a transaction including your card, mobile payment device or computer, unless suitably protected.
- Do not voluntarily disclose your PIN or Pass Code to anything or anyone, including a family member or a friend. Use care to prevent another person seeing your card number, expiry date, CVV, PIN and/or Pass Code being entered at Electronic Equipment including but not limited to ATMs, EFT terminals, a computer or mobile payment device.
- Immediately report the loss, theft, unauthorised use or compromise of your PIN, Pass Code, card or any mobile payment device to RACQ Bank by calling 13 1905 or if overseas call +61 7 3845 4851, 24 hours a day.

Failure to adhere to these guidelines could result in you being liable for any unauthorised electronic transactions on your accounts. Liability for any losses will be determined under the ePayments Code. RACQ bank's security approach is available on our website racq.com/banking. Further information about security is available from the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission website scamwatch.gov.au. Information about the ePayments Code can be obtained from us or ASIC's website asic.gov.au
