The Australian tax system relies on taxpayers self-assessing. This means you are responsible for working out how much you can declare and claim on your tax return. The records you need to keep depend on your personal circumstances. Generally, you must keep your written evidence for five years from the date you lodge your tax return. This guide will provide general advice to help you identify what records you need to keep.

MOTOR VEHICLE EXPENSES

You can choose one of two methods to work out your car expenses. The two methods are either:

- Cents Per Kilometer (up to a maximum 5000km claim)

You need to be able to demonstrate to the ATO if requested how you calculated the kilometers driven (such as by diary entries). Confirmation may also be requested by your employer to acknowledge that it was necessary for you to incur such expenditure in earning your income.

- Log Book

The ATO requires that you maintain written evidence for all expenses claimed and keep a valid log book substantiating the business-use percentage. For a logbook to be ATO compliant it must include all of the ATO mandated details and be kept for a period of at least 12 continuous weeks. The log book is valid for a period up to 5 years but you must also record opening and closing odometer readings for each year.

TRAVEL EXPENSES

A travel diary should be used by individuals wishing to claim a deduction for work related travel expenses. A travel diary is not required if the duration of the trip is less than six nights. Note that written evidence in the form of receipts or invoices are required regardless of the length of the trip. Modified requirements may apply if you received a travel allowance from your employer.

LAUNDRY

You can claim a deduction for the cost of buying and cleaning occupation-specific clothing, protective clothing and distinctive uniforms (such as with a logo). If the amount of your claims is greater than $150, you must have written evidence, such as diary entries and receipts for your laundry expenses. If you don't need to provide written evidence, you may use an ATO approved reasonable basis to work out your claim.

TELEPHONE AND INTERNET EXPENSES

You need to keep records for a four-week representative period in each income year to claim a deduction of more than $50. These records may include diary entries, including electronic records, and bills. Evidence that your employer expects you to work at home will also help you demonstrate that you are entitled to a deduction. Additional ATO information on how to calculate your claim can be accessed here:

<https://www.ato.gov.au/Individuals/Income-and-deductions/Deductions-you-can-claim/Other-work-related-deductions/Phone,-data-and-internet-expenses/>

WHEN YOU HAVE ACQUIRED OR DISPOSED OF AN ASSET

If you acquire or dispose of an asset which might be subject to capital gains tax (CGT), you should keep:

- Documents showing the dates you acquired an asset and the date the CGT event occurred such as:
  - contracts for the purchase or sale of an asset (such as real estate or shares)
  - dividend reinvestment statements from your unit trust or managed investment fund.

The above information is provided as a guide only and is not an exhaustive list of ATO requirements.

RIGHTS & OBLIGATIONS

The Tax Agents Services Act 2009 requires us to advise you of your rights and obligations where we are acting for you on taxation matters. In relation to the taxation services provided:

- You are responsible for making all relevant information available to us in a complete and timely manner.
- Australia's income tax system is based on a self-assessment. The Commissioner is entitled to rely on any statements made. Where those statements are later found to be incorrect, the Commissioner may amend your assessments and, in addition to any tax assessed, you may also be liable for penalties and interest charges. The period of review is up to four years. Where the Commissioner forms an opinion of fraud or evasion, there is no limit for amending assessments.
- You are responsible for the accuracy and completeness of the particulars and information required to comply with the various taxation laws. We will use this information supplied in the preparation of your returns.
- You have an obligation to keep proper records that will substantiate the taxation returns prepared and satisfy the substantiation requirements of the various tax laws for at least 5 years. Failure to keep such records could result in claims being disallowed, additional tax being imposed, and the imposition of penalty or general interest charges.
- Your rights as a taxpayer include:
  - The right to seek a private ruling;
  - The right to object to an assessment by the Commissioner;
  - The right to appeal against an adverse decision by the Commissioner.

Certain time limitations may exist for you to exercise these rights. Should you wish to exercise these rights at any time you should contact us so that we can provide you with the relevant time frames and to discuss any additional requirements that may exist.

2023 TAX RETURN SUBSTANTIATION DECLARATION

Tax returns are assessed on a Self-Assessment basis. This means that the ATO may not check whether the information you have submitted is correct. We will make every endeavour to ensure that your return is prepared accurately and correctly, however we rely on you to ensure that all relevant information is disclosed to us.

I, Bernadette Egan, confirm that:

I have reviewed every page of the accompanying copy of the income tax return to which the attached Electronic Lodgment Declaration refers and confirm that all items are correct and that there are no omissions or misstatements.

Income:

If I am an Australian tax resident, you have advised me that I must declare income from all sources, in and out of Australia, including net capital gains received, for the year of income in my tax return.

Expenses:

You have advised me that to claim a work-related or other expense deduction I must demonstrate that I have incurred the expense for income producing purposes. In addition, you have advised me of the substantiation legislation that I must satisfy in relation to all deductible expenses, including car, travel, business, education and work-related expenses. You have informed me that I must OBTAIN ORIGINAL RECEIPTS and keep them for a minimum of five years from the date my return is lodged.

The receipts must contain the following details:

- name of supplier and amount of expense;
- nature of goods/services and date of the expenses (details I am able to personally record where not adequately noted by supplier);
- date of the document.

Apportionment:

Where items are used for both business/work-related and private purposes e.g. car, telephone, computer etc. I advise I have kept appropriate apportionment records to verify my business usage claim and that my employer will verify that it was necessary to incur such expenditure in earning my income. Further, I have instructed you to prepare the return based on my specific instructions on the understanding I will be able to produce such information to the satisfaction of the ATO in an audit situation.

Audits:

I further confirm that:

- I am aware that the procedures to follow if a document is lost or destroyed is to obtain a copy from the supplier;
- I may be required to substantiate or verify any income or expense item declared or claimed in my tax return in the event of an ATO audit;

I declare that:

- I have read and understood the tax return that has been prepared for me;
- I have disclosed and you have returned all my assessable income for the current income tax year;
- I have all receipts or documentation necessary to substantiate my work-related and other claims, and I will make them available if required by the Tax Office;
- All income declared, claims for deductions and tax offsets/rebates included in my return are based upon my specific instructions;
- You have explained what written income and expense evidence will typically be required during an audit and that penalties, interest and possible legal action may be applied if incorrect income or claims are identified by an audit;
- I further understand that if the return is not lodged by the due date specified, penalties may apply.

Terms and Conditions:

- I acknowledge that an invoice will be issued for your services and I agree to pay this invoice in full.
- I acknowledge that further action may be taken to secure payment of overdue/outstanding accounts.
