Superannuation Holding Accounts special account (SHAs)
Transfer of account balances

To whom it may concern

An amount of $1,000.00 is being forwarded to you as per the enclosed remittance advice.

If your fund does not have an active account for one or more of the people listed, you will need to repay us by following the steps overleaf.

Please refer to the back of this letter for other important information.

Yours faithfully

Grant Brodie
Deputy Commissioner of Taxation

Important information

Why we transferred these amounts to your superannuation fund or RSA

These SHAs balances have been transferred to your fund or retirement savings account (RSA) either because you made a claim on behalf of the account holder, the account holder has asked us to transfer the account to you, or we have found that you hold an account in the name of a person listed on the front of this notice.

If your fund or RSA does not have an active account for a listed person

If your fund does not have an active account for one or more of the people listed, you should tell us this in a signed letter headed 'SHA special account rejected entitlements'. Your repayment can be sent electronically to us by direct credit, BPAY®, or cheque. The letter should contain the following details:

- fund or RSA name, tax file number, contact name and telephone number
- listed person's name, date of birth, contribution reference number and amount
- the reason for not accepting the payment, and
- the payment method (direct credit, BPAY® or cheque) and total amount.

The letter and, if applicable, the cheque should be sent to:

Australian Taxation Office
PO Box 3578
ALBURY NSW 2640

Tax file numbers

From 1 July 2007 funds cannot accept any member contributions, including super co-contributions paid by the Australian Taxation Office, unless the fund holds a tax file number (TFN) for that member.

How to report transfers

For self-managed superannuation funds (SMSFs), the employer contributed amount and government super contributed amount must be reported on your SMSF annual return. For all other funds, these amounts must be reported on the member contributions statement (MCS) that you lodge each year.

Employer contributed amounts should be reported for the year that they were transferred to you. For example, you should report the employer contribution component of a SHA special account transfer sent to you on 10 May 2008 on your SMSF annual return or MCS for the year ended 30 June 2008.

There are details on how to correctly report the super co-contribution amount in:

- (for SMSFs) Instructions: Self managed superannuation fund annual return 2008 (NAT 71606) or
- (for all other funds) How to complete the Superannuation member contributions statement (MCS) (NAT 2603)

How you should treat this transfer for income tax purposes

The employer contributed amount is treated as income of the fund or RSA and is taxed at the normal rate of 15%.

No tax is payable by the fund or RSA for the transferred government super contributed amount.

Reading your remittance advice

This remittance advice provides details of low income super amounts credited to you for one or more of your members.

Payment for and account details

These details are provided so you can reconcile each payment with the correct member account.

Where you have made a claim for payment, the member and account details will match those you reported to us as part of your claim.

Remittance reference number

This is a unique identifier we assign to the remittance of a member's low income super amount payment.

It is important to note this number as it needs to be quoted if you are not accepting a particular payment on this remittance.

Payment

This is the total amount of low income super amounts being credited for a member.

Tax file numbers

From 1 July 2007, funds cannot accept any member contributions, including low income super amount paid by the Australian Taxation Office unless the fund holds a tax file number for that member.

What should you do if you will not be accepting one or more payments on the remittance?

You will need to complete a Superannuation payment variation advice (NAT 8451) statement and lodge it and your repayment with us on or before 27 September 2019.

The Completing the Superannuation payment variation advice (NAT 8450) statement instructions will help you fill out this form.

Your repayment can be sent electronically to us by BPAY® or direct credit, or by cheque enclosed with the completed form.

If you are paying by cheque, please refer to the 'How to pay' information on the Superannuation payment variation advice (NAT 8451) statement. This will help you to complete the repayment details.

If you are making your payment electronically, you will need to use the following Australian Taxation Office details:

For BPAY®

Biller code	75556
Customer reference number	552 00917 167 692 4954

For direct credit

Return payment EFT code	552 00917 167 692 4954
