Most transactions are reported to us by your super providers. There are some events you need to report to us, including any loss of super from fraud or dishonesty, bankruptcy payments and family law payment splits. You also need to report personal injury super contributions made prior to 1 July 2007. To report these to us, use the Transfer balance account event form.

No transactions were found. If you believe this is incorrect, contact your super provider to check whether they have reported this information to us.
