Thank you for investing in a Commonwealth Bank of Australia Cash Deposit Account. Your new account number, also known as your "CDA Client Number", is noted above. Please quote this account number in all enquiries regarding your account.

The terms and conditions that govern this account are included in the Cash Deposit Account General Information and Terms and Conditions document, which was provided to you prior to opening your account. Copies of this document are also available on our web site commbank.com.au.

A number of methods are available to make deposits and withdraw funds from your Cash Deposit Account:

- ◆ BPAY® can be used to make deposits to your Cash Deposit Account from other financial institutions. The Biller Code will be printed on your regular statements.
- ◆ You can request a transfer of funds by visiting your nearest Commonwealth Bank branch or by telephoning your relationship manager.
- ◆ Personalised deposit books are available on request, which can be used to make deposits at any Commonwealth Bank branch.

Please refer to the Cash Deposit Account General Information and Terms and Conditions document for more information about this product. If you have further queries, please contact your relationship manager or any branch of the Bank.

If your Cash Deposit Account was opened on your behalf by your broker, financial adviser, accountant or solicitor, please refer to that person for further details.

This advice has been issued unsigned and without any alterations or erasures
