Interest already paid on your Term Deposit this financial year $26.75

Interest payable on or before maturity date if your funds remain invested until maturity $21.26

What options are available and what do you need to do?
Refer to the table below and information provided on the page overleaf.

Option 1 Renew automatically	You do not need to do anything. On the maturity date, your Term Deposit will be renewed for the same term of 30 days, at the interest rate applicable on 12 August 2017 to that term, in accordance with the Standard Term Deposit Terms and Conditions. We will send you a Reinvestment Notice confirming your new deposit details.
Option 2 Provide alternative instructions	To renew with a different term or investment amount, you can: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Log on to NetBank, visit any branch or contact your Relationship Manager before the maturity date. Contact us by phone on 13 2221 during the Grace Period between 12 August 2017 and 18 August 2017. We will send you confirmation once your instructions have been applied.

Your renewal interest rate

Your Term Deposit interest rate depends on the amount you invest and your investment term. As a consequence of market rate movements and because we change the terms of our best rates from time to time, the interest rate on your renewed Term Deposit may be significantly different, higher or lower, to the interest rate that you received in the previous term. A higher rate may be available for a different term.

To check the interest rate applied on your renewed Term Deposit at maturity, visit any branch or log on to NetBank. Alternatively, call 13 2221 or your Relationship Manager.

If you would like to consider other savings or investment products that may be more suitable for you, please contact us before 18 August 2017 to discuss the options.
