BOTH PARTIES AGREE THAT

- Unforeseen
Event
Inspections
20. If something happens to the premises so that the whole or a substantial part can no longer be occupied, and the parties are in no way responsible then either party shall have the right to terminate the lease, provided written notice is given within fourteen days of the event.
 21. The landlord or his agent shall inspect the premises at the commencement of the lease and on its termination and take note of their condition including state of cleanliness, state or repair, and working order of appliances.
- Repairs
22. (a) The tenant shall have repaired in a proper way any damage to the premises resulting from neglect or a deliberate or careless act or a breach of any condition of the lease by the tenant or any person on the premises with his consent.
(b) Except as in Condition 22 (a), the landlord shall carry out without delay all reasonable repairs necessary for the tenant's ordinary use and occupation of the premises, having regard to the condition of the premises at the commencement of the lease.
- Access
23. (a) The landlord shall respect the tenant's right to privacy.
(b) The tenant shall allow access to the landlord and his agent:
 - (i) when it is reasonable that they or either of them should view the condition of the premises or carry out repairs, or
 - (ii) to erect 'to let' signs and to show the premises to intending tenants, after notice termination the lease has been given, or
 - (iii) To erect 'for sale' signs and to show the premises to intending purchasers, after the landlord has given the tenant notice of his wish to sell.
(c) The landlord shall give the tenant reasonable notice of the time and date for such access. As far as possible it shall be convenient for both parties.
(d) The landlord may have access at any time with the consent of the tenant or in the case of an emergency.

Costs	24. Each party shall bear their own costs in relation to the preparation and execution of this lease.
Statutes	25. Each party shall observe as applicable to himself all relevant statutes, statutory regulations and by-laws relating to health, safety, noise and other standards with respect to the premises.
Notices	26. Any written notice required or authorised by the lease: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Shall be served on the tenant personally, or by pre-paid post to the premises, or by being left there in the post box. (b) Shall be served on the landlord by personal service on him or his agent, or by pre-paid post to his or his agent's address as shown in the lease or as notified in writing, or by being left in the post box at that address. (c) Shall be deemed to be served on the second week day after posting, where it is sent by pre-paid post. (d) May take effect on any day of the month if it relates to the termination of a periodic lease, provided it gives the required length of notice.
Mitigation	27. Where there has been a breach of any of the conditions of the lease by either party, the other party shall take all reasonable steps to minimise any resultant loss or damage.
Payment after notice	28. (a) After a notice terminating the lease or demanding immediate possession has been given, any acceptance of or demand for rent or money by the landlord shall not of itself be evidence of a new lease with the tenant or alter the legal effect of the notice. (b) Where the tenant unlawfully remains in possession after the termination of the lease, the landlord is entitled, in addition to any other claim, to payments equal to the rent as compensation for the use and occupation of the premises.
Disputes	29. In any dispute or proceeding between the parties, both parties shall act reasonably and without delay and make all admissions necessary to enable the real issues to be decided.
Termination	30. (a) Where the lease has become a periodic lease from month to month, either party may terminate it by giving one month written notice. (b) The landlord shall have the right to re-enter the premises peacefully or to continue the lease as a periodic lease from week to week: - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) Where the tenant has failed to pay rent for a period in excess of seven days, whether formally demanded or not, or (ii) Where the tenant has seriously or persistently breached any of the conditions of the lease, or (iii) Upon the tenant being declared bankrupt or insolvent according to the law or making any assignment for the benefit of creditors or taking the benefit of any Act now or hereafter to be in force for the relief of bankrupts or insolvents. (c) If the landlord intends to exercise his right to re-enter, he shall serve the tenant with a written notice stating the reason and demanding immediate possession. (d) If the landlord intends to exercise his right to continue the lease as a periodic lease from week to week, he shall serve the tenant with a written notice stating the reason and informing the tenant of the variation to the lease. Upon service of the notice, the lease shall continue with all its conditions, except for the Term and Holding Over conditions, as a periodic lease from week to week which may be terminated by one week's written notice from either party. (e) The landlord shall have the right to re-enter the premises without giving notice, if he has reasonable grounds to believe that they have been abandoned. (f) The tenant shall have the right to terminate the lease if the landlord has seriously or persistently breached any of its conditions, he shall give the landlord fourteen days written notice, indicating at the same time the nature of the breach. (g) Any action by the landlord or tenant in accordance with Conditions 29 (b), (c), (d), (e) or (f), shall not affect any claim for damages in respect of a breach of a condition of the lease. (h) The tenant may remove his fixtures and shall remove his signs provided that any damage or defacement occasioned to any part of the premises in the course of such removal shall be remedied by the tenant immediately and at his own expense. If he fails to do so the landlord may do so at the tenants' expense. (i) Upon the termination or determination of the lease for any cause the tenant shall promptly and peacefully give vacant possession of the premises in the condition and state of repair required by Conditions 12 and 22 (a) of the lease, and at the same time hand over all keys.
Parting with Possession	31. (a) The tenant shall not assign or sub-let or part with possession of the premises or any part thereof except with the written consent of the landlord. (b) The landlord shall not withhold his consent unreasonably, provided that the tenant gives him fourteen-day notice and the tenant pay any reasonable expenses involved in the landlord giving consent.
Cleaning	32. (a) The landlord will employ the caretaker or any other persons he may think fit to clean all or any of the offices or rooms in the building of which the premises form part. (b) The tenant will from time to time pay to the landlord the sums demanded by him for cleaning the premises and such sums shall be added to the rent and be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the rent and be recovered in the same manner as the rent is recoverable. (c) The landlord shall not be responsible to the tenant for any loss of property from the premises however occurring or for any damage done to the furniture or other effects of any tenant by the caretaker or any employees of the landlord or by any other person or persons whomsoever.
Renewal	33. (a) The tenant shall give to the landlord or his agent not more than six (6) months and not less than three (3) months prior to the expiration of the term granted in this lease notice in writing if he wishes to take a renewal of the lease for the further term offered. Provided he has duly and punctually paid the rent and shall have duly performed and observed his part all the conditions and agreements contained in this lease up to the expiration of the term granted, then the landlord will at the cost of the tenant grant to him the further term at a rent which would at such a time be current market rental of the premises. (b) In the event of any dispute between the landlord and the tenant as to such rent the rent shall be determined by the President of the Real Estate Institute of Victoria or his appointee. The total rent is not to be less than the total rent payable just prior to the expiration of this lease and the lease shall be subject to all other conditions as are contained in this lease with the exception of the Option Condition. The costs of such rental determination shall be borne in equal shares by the parties unless otherwise agreed.
Interpretation	34. (a) The word 'agent' in context with 'landlord' includes the landlord's estate agent or managing agent and any other person authorised to act on behalf of the landlord. (b) The word 'landlord' includes the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of the landlord, and where the context permits include the landlord's agent. (c) The word 'tenant' includes the executors, administrators and permitted assigns of the tenant. (d) The word 'fixtures' includes fittings, furniture, furnishings, appliances, plant, machinery and equipment. (e) The word 'month' shall mean calendar month. (f) Where the context permit, words expressed in the singular include the plural and vice versa, words expressed in the masculine gender include the feminine, and words referring to a person include a company. (g) Where two or more tenants or landlords are parties, the conditions of the lease shall bind them jointly and individually. (h) When this lease is signed by both parties and witnessed, it is a deed at law from that time. (i) Headings in the margin have been inserted to assist the parties but they do not form a legal part of the lease.
Guarantor's Liability	35. In consideration of the landlord leasing the premises to the tenant in accordance with this lease, the Guarantors for themselves and each of them and each of their executors and administrators unconditionally agree that they and each of them will be (with the tenant) jointly and severally liable to the landlord for the payment of the rent and all other moneys payable by the tenant, and also for the due performance and observance of all the terms and conditions on the part of the tenant contained or implied. AND IT IS HEREBY EXPRESSLY AGREED AND DECLARED that the landlord may grant to the tenant any time or indulgence and may compound or compromise or release the tenant without realising or affecting the liability of the Guarantors.
Counterpart	36. This agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts each of which will be an original but such counterparts together will constitute one and the same instrument.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

Special conditions forming part of this lease are to be signed by both parties and attached as Annexure A.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. No sign, advertisement or notice shall be inscribed or painted or affixed on any part of the outside or the inside of the premises except of such colour, size and style and in such place upon or in the building as are approved in writing by the landlord. Upon request by the tenant, interior signs on glass doors and on the directory tablets will be provided for him and at his expense by the landlord.
2. The tenant shall not obstruct the entrance passages, halls, staircases, or fire escapes of the premises or use them or any part of them for any purpose other than for going in and out of the premises.
3. The tenant will not obstruct or interfere with the rights of other tenants or in any way injure or annoy them or conflict with the regulations of any public authority or with the terms of any insurance policy upon the building or its contents.
4. The tenant shall not install or position any heavy equipment or article without first obtaining the written consent of the landlord, which consent may prescribe the maximum weight and the position in which such heavy equipment or article may be placed or secured; the tenant shall make good at his expense all damage caused to the building or any part of it by the introduction, installation, presence or removal of any heavy equipment or article of which the tenant has ownership, custody or control. Before any safe or heavy article is moved into the building due notice must be given to the landlord and the moving of it in and about the building shall only be done under the supervision of the landlord or his agent.
5. In the event of any emergency or other eventuality whereby the toilets or washrooms on any floor are not available for use the landlord may temporarily withdraw the right of exclusive use of all or any of toilet or washroom areas and services not affected so as to ensure availability of these facilities to all occupants of the building, and no rental adjustment will be made during such temporary arrangements.
6. All doors and windows of the premises shall be securely fastened on all occasions when the premises are left unoccupied. The landlord reserved the right for this agents' employees, servants and workmen to enter and fasten them if they are left unfastened or insecurely fastened.
