G & D Rigo Superannuation Fund

Background:

The Investment Strategy outlined below represents an expansion and clarification of the Investment Strategy agreed at on the formation of G & D Rigo Superannuation Fund.

In recognition of the sole purpose test as required under SIS legislation, this Investment Strategy has been created in compliance with the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (SIS Act) and relevant Regulations, and supersedes any prior existing Investment Strategy.

Objectives:

The objective of the Fund is to:

- Invest the assets of the Fund in such a way as to protect and enhance the superannuation benefits of its members to meet their retirement needs. In the event of a member's death before retirement, this would be to provide benefits to the dependants of the members.
- Ensure that appropriate and sufficient assets are held by the Fund in order to support these needs.
- Ensure the Fund has sufficient liquidity at all times to meet all commitments as and when they fall due.

The investment objective of the Trustees is to aim to achieve medium-term growth with returns that are 2% above inflation over 4 years. In recognition of the investment time frame of members, the Fund will have a medium proportion of growth assets in the portfolio.

The Trustees recognise that the rate of return on investments can vary due to levels of risk and volatile markets and that the Trustees have no liability should the rate of return not be achieved.

Investment Choice:

The Trustees have determined the Fund's Investments may include, but not be limited to all or one of the following:

- Australian Shares
- International Shares
- Property
- Australian Fixed Interest
- International Fixed Interest
- Cash
- Other (as allowed for under the SIS Act)

In formulating this Strategy, the trustees have taken into consideration relevant features of the various investments in accordance with both the Fund's objectives and appropriate SIS legislation, including:

- the risks and likely return associated with each Investment;
- the range and diversity of Investments held by the Fund;
- any risks coming from limited diversification;
- the liquidity of the Fund's investments;
- the ages and preferences of its members;
- any taxation implications of the investments (including income tax, capital gains tax, transfer duty and GST);
- expected cash flow requirements; and
- the ability of the Fund to meet its existing and prospective liabilities such as paying benefits to its members.

The Trustees have sufficient expertise, however may from time to time decide to seek external professional assistance in formulating and implementing this, or any future Fund Investment Strategy.

Policies:

The policies adopted by the Trustees in order to achieve these objectives are:

- Regular monitoring of the performance of the Fund's investments, the overall investment mix and the expected cash flow requirements of the Fund.
- Re-balancing the Fund's investment portfolio due to changes in market conditions through asset sales and new investments as appropriate.
- Upgrade the Investment Strategy should risk tolerance or diversification strategies change.

A copy of the Investment Strategy of the Fund will be available to members of the Fund on request.

Risk profile and risk tolerance:

The Trustees will strive to identify, measure and manage risks associated with the Funds particular investments. Taking into account the preferred investment preference of each of the individual members of the Fund (as indicated below), the Trustees have determined the acceptable level of Risk Tolerance of the Fund as being as Medium Risk.

Member 1 – Diane Rigo
Age: 72
Employment Status: Mostly retired, works part-time as sole trader
Account Type: Account Based pension & accumulation account.
Retirement Objectives: To provide long term for retirement with a pension available to cover a comfortable lifestyle and any health conditions.
Investment Risk Preference: <input type="checkbox"/> Low <input type="checkbox"/> Low-Medium <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Medium <input type="checkbox"/> Medium-High <input type="checkbox"/> High

Geared Investments:

Where a limited recourse borrowing arrangement or self-Funding instalment warrant is held, the Trustees recognise the additional risk of geared investments. The Trustees understand and are prepared to accept the increased volatility of returns associated with geared investments.

Insurance:

The Trustees note that insurance may be issued in the Fund, another Superannuation Fund or in the members own personal capacity.

The Trustees have considered insurance for the benefit of the members and are satisfied that the members currently have appropriate levels of insurance held in a personal capacity. The Trustees have determined at present no additional insurance contracts will be required to be maintained by the Fund, however this Insurance Strategy will be regularly reviewed and updated should members circumstances change.

Liquidity:

The Trustees recognise that the Fund needs to have sufficient liquidity to pay ongoing expenses, taxation liabilities and members benefits as required. The Trustees will retain sufficient liquidity in order to meet any foreseen expenses in a timely manner.

Diversification of Asset Allocation:

The Trustees recognise that diversification in the number of investments held by the Fund is an effective method of spreading risk of failure in individual investments. In order to achieve the Funds objectives and remain considerate of the Funds Risk Profile and expected Rate of Return, the Trustees have determined the following asset spread to be appropriate for the Fund:

Asset Class	Target Range		Benchmark
	To	From
International Shares	0%	0%	0%
Cash	0%	25%	5%
Australian Fixed Interest	0%	0%	0%
International Fixed Interest	0%	0%	0%
Mortgages	0%	0%	0%
Direct Property	20%	60%	40%
Listed Property	0%	0%	0%
Other	0%	75%	55%

Diversification is achieved through a mix of Australian investments across a range of asset classes, including property, managed funds and cash. The trustee recognises that diversification can result in significant reduction to return volatility while maintaining the level of anticipated return. When making investment decisions, the Trustees will review and consider these investment ranges and the associated risks and rates of return of each investment.

Signed by Trustees

This Investment Strategy has been adopted by the Trustees of the Fund, and will be reviewed annually as part of the Financial Statements and Annual Return, or when the Trustees consider it appropriate.

Fund data and financials

This certificate has been prepared at the request of, and based on data supplied by, DGZ Chartered Accountants on behalf of the Trustees for the 2021/22 income year. A summary of the data supplied to us for the purpose of calculating the exempt income proportion is provided below:

Name of fund:	G & D RIGO SUPERANNUATION FUND
Fund ABN:	74974114431
Trustee:	D Rigo Pty Ltd
Member:	(1) Diane Rigo

Member 1
Date of birth	15 Feb 1949
Value of retirement phase income streams as at 1 Jul 2021	$1,574,838
Value of retirement phase income streams at 1 Jul 2021 excluding liabilities in respect to segregated current pension assets.	$1,574,838

The aggregate operating statement information is:

Assets available at 1 July 2021	$5,027,156
Less
Pension payments and lump sum withdrawals	$40,000
Equals
Balance before income and expenses	$4,987,156
Preliminary net income	$101,099
Gross assets available at year end (before tax)	$5,088,255

We understand that the financial information provided to us when applying for this certificate may be unaudited. Should the financial information provided to us change, as a result of audit or otherwise, this may affect the results of our calculations and we recommend you apply for an amended certificate.

In addition to relying on the data provided to us, we have made the following assumption when completing this actuarial certificate:

- The tax exempt percentage calculation was completed based on the data supplied to us, no further assumptions were required.

The information provided to us indicated that this Fund had disregarded small fund assets, as defined in section 295.387 of the ITAA 1997. The Fund therefore had no segregated current pension assets or segregated non-current assets and could not use the segregated method to claim exempt current pension income during the income year.

Minimum pension standards

Based on the information provided, the Fund contains only accumulation and account-based type income stream benefits (commonly referred to as pensions). These include allocated pensions, market linked pensions, and account-based income streams (including transition to retirement pensions). The Fund contains no other types of income stream benefits such as defined benefits in growth or pension phase.

The Superannuation Industry Supervision (SIS) Regulations for account-based income streams include a requirement for a minimum amount to be paid to the member over the year depending on the member's age, opening account balance date of commencement. Where the minimum pension standards are not met the earnings on the assets supporting that income stream may not be eligible for an exemption from income tax, and the exempt income proportion shown in this certificate may not be correct. It was confirmed upon submission of the data for this report that all assets shown as supporting retirement phase superannuation income streams are eligible for an exemption from income tax by virtue of having met the minimum pension standards for the Income year. We have not checked that this is the case and recommend that the Fund's auditor satisfies him or herself that the relevant standards have been met.

Appendix B – Fund liabilities

Segregated current pension assets

Section 295.385 of the ITAA 1997 defines segregated current pension assets as those assets that are set aside to solely support retirement phase income streams. Assessable income (excluding non-arm's length income and assessable contributions) earned on these assets is exempt from income tax.

Guidance from the Australian Tax Office states that where a fund's only superannuation liabilities are in respect of account-based retirement phase income streams at a particular point in time, the fund's assets are deemed to be segregated current pension assets. The eligible income earned during a period where a fund is 100% in retirement phase is therefore exempt from tax under the segregated method.

However, as long as the fund was not solely in retirement phase for the entire income year, trustee(s) can choose to treat periods of the year where the fund is 100% in retirement phase as unsegregated and therefore claim exempt income solely using the proportionate method. Trustee(s) must choose to claim exempt income in this manner as, if no choice is made, periods which are 100% in retirement phase must claim exempt income under the segregated method.

An exception to the above is where a fund has disregarded small fund assets and is therefore unable to use the segregated method. Disregarded small fund assets are defined under section 295.387 of ITAA 1997 and apply where an SMSF or small-APRA fund have a retirement phase income stream in an income year and at the previous 30 June:

- A member of the fund had a total superannuation balance (including accounts outside that fund) of over $1.6 million, and
- That member was the recipient of a retirement phase income stream in any fund.

A fund will not have disregarded small fund assets if all fund assets were solely supporting retirement phase interests for the entire income year.

Based on the information provided, our calculations assume that:

- The Fund had disregarded small fund assets for the 2022 income year and therefore had no segregated current pension assets.

Segregated non-current assets

Segregated non-current assets as defined in section 295.395 of ITAA 1997 are those assets set aside solely to support non-retirement phase superannuation liabilities such as accumulation interests. A separate actuary's certificate is required in order to segregate such assets. We understand that the Fund had no segregated non-current assets during the income year.

Illustration of liabilities

The following chart illustrates the Fund's liabilities during the income year:

The green non-retirement phase liabilities represent accumulation interests, reserves and non-retirement phase transition to retirement income streams in the Fund over the income year. The grey unsegregated retirement phase liabilities represent retirement phase income streams that were not segregated current pension assets.

The liabilities shown in grey and green are those that are used to calculate the exempt income proportion. These liabilities are known as 'unsegregated' and eligible income earned on assets supporting these liabilities will claim ECPI based on the exempt income proportion in this actuarial certificate.

Appendix C - Exempt income proportion results and adequacy opinion

Exempt income proportion

Superannuation funds claiming exempt current pension income ("ECPI") under section 295.390 of the ITAA 1997, known as the proportionate or unsegregated method, are required to obtain an actuary's certificate prior to lodgement of the fund's income tax return. The proportion of the applicable income, excluding income earned on segregated current pension assets and segregated non-current assets, for the year ending 30 June 2022 that should be exempt from income tax is calculated as follows:

$$\frac{\text{Average value of current pension liabilities}}{\text{Average value of superannuation liabilities}} = \frac{$1,572,865}{$5,025,183} = 31.300\%$$

Within the requirements of legislation and the Fund's Trust Deed and Rules, the Trustees may have discretion about how income and expenses are allocated at the member level. We have not checked the terms of the Fund's Trust Deed and Rules. The daily weighted average calculation of the exempt income proportion provides a fair and reasonable method of apportioning these items between the member accounts at year end for income earned on assets that are not segregated assets and is provided below:

	Member 1	Fund
Exempt income proportion	31.300%	31.300%
Non-exempt income proportion	68.700%	68.700%

The above proportions are unlikely to be appropriate for allocating income earned on segregated assets.

Calculating the fund's exempt current pension income for the purpose of your tax return

The exempt income proportion is applied to net ordinary assessable income including net capital gains, but excluding assessable contributions, non-arm's length income and income including capital gains or losses derived from any segregated assets. The Trustee would calculate ECPI as follows:

Total ECPI = Eligible income * Exempt income proportion + Income on segregated current pension assets

Unutilised capital losses (except capital losses on segregated current pension assets) can be carried forward until they can be offset against assessable capital gains.

Adequacy opinion and methodology

By definition, the liabilities of an account-based member interest or reserve at a particular time, in the absence of any unusual terms or guarantees, are equal to the value of the assets backing it. Therefore no specific assumption has been made (or is needed) regarding rates of return on the Fund's assets; pension increases; or the liability calculation discount rate. As such, I am satisfied that the amount of the assets at the end of the year, if accumulated together with the Fund's future earnings and contributions, will provide the amount required to discharge in full the liabilities as they fall due. No recommendation is needed with regard to future contributions.

The average values used in the exempt income proportion are determined using a daily weighted average calculation which takes into account relevant information such as the opening balances of each member account, any reserves, and the size and timing of any member transactions during the income year. Unless otherwise stated, all member transactions including pension commencements and commutations are assumed to occur immediately at the start of each day. More information on the methodology used can be found at <https://portal.accurium.com.au/content/certs/methodology-guide.pdf>

Appendix D - Apportioning expenses

Methods for apportioning expenses

A superannuation fund can generally deduct expenses to the extent they were incurred in producing assessable income. Where an expense can be attributed to solely producing assessable income then it can be deducted from assessable income in its entirety. Where it is solely attributable to non-assessable income it is entirely non-deductible. However, expenses that cannot be attributed to solely producing exempt income or solely producing assessable income need to be apportioned to determine how much can be deducted.

A fair and reasonable approach must be used to determine what proportion of such an expense can be deducted. A common industry approach has used the tax exempt proportion provided in the fund's actuarial certificate to determine an appropriate deductibility proportion as follows:

$$\text{Expense deductibility proportion} = 1 - \text{actuarial exempt income proportion}$$

This generally represents the proportion of fund's total income that is assessable during an income year. It is therefore a fair and reasonable approach to apportioning an expense that relates to the whole fund for that income year.

However, superannuation liabilities supported by segregated current pension assets are excluded from the actuarial exempt income proportion calculation. This includes assets which were deemed to be segregated at a particular time due to the fund only having retirement phase superannuation liabilities at that time.

Where a fund does have segregated current pension assets, the approach above is likely to underestimate the extent to which an expense was incurred in producing exempt income, and therefore overstate the amount that can be reasonably deducted.

For those funds wishing to use the actuarial exempt income proportion as the basis for the deductibility of expenses we have determined below a deductibility proportion that takes into account all fund liabilities over the income year. This may be different to (1 – actuarial exempt income proportion) where the fund has segregated current pension assets and may be a fair and reasonable deductible proportion for expenses which must be apportioned and relate to the whole income year.

Expense deductibility proportion

The following deductible proportion has been determined based on all fund liabilities, including any segregated current pension assets identified in Appendix B, using the same methodology as the exempt income proportion described in Appendix C.

Expense deductibility proportion:	68.700%
-----------------------------------	---------

This is not intended to be tax advice and you should determine whether this deductible proportion is appropriate for this fund and for each relevant fund expense prior to use.

Audit Engagement Letter

Objectives and Scope of the Audit

You have requested that we audit the financial statements of the SMSF for the year ended 30 June 2022. We are pleased to confirm our acceptance and understanding of this engagement by means of this letter.

Our audit will be performed in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards, the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (SISA) and the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Regulations (SISR) with the objective of expressing an opinion on the financial report and the fund's compliance with the specified requirements of the SISA and the SISR.

Our Responsibilities

We will conduct our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Those Auditing Standards require that we comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance as to whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing audit procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the financial reporting framework, accounting policies used and the implementation and operation of accounting and internal control systems that are designed to prevent and detect fraud and error, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

Because of the inherent limitations of an audit, together with the inherent limitations of internal control, there is an unavoidable risk that some material misstatement may not be detected, even though the audit is properly planned and performed in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards.

In making our risk assessments, we consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation of the financial report in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. We will, however, communicate to you in writing any significant deficiencies in internal control relevant to the audit of the financial report that we have identified during the audit.

Trustees' Responsibilities

Our audit will be conducted on the basis that the trustee(s) acknowledge and understand that they have responsibilities:

- For the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards, other mandatory reporting requirements and the SIS Act and SIS Regulations is that of the trustee(s);
- For such internal control as the trustee(s) determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error; and
- To provide us with:
  - Access to all information of which the trustees are aware that is relevant to the preparation of the financial report such as records, documentation and other matters;

- Additional information that we may request from the trustees for the purpose of the audit; and
- Unrestricted access to persons within the entity from whom we determine it necessary to obtain audit evidence.

As part of our audit process, we will request from trustees written confirmation concerning representations made to us in connection with the audit.

Australian Auditing Standards require that we determine whether the financial reporting framework applied in the preparation of this special purpose of financial report is acceptable. If we determine the financial reporting framework to be unacceptable, we will not be able to undertake the audit engagement unless the framework is amended and then determined to be acceptable.

If a qualified audit report is to be issued following the completion of our audit, we will advise the details to you in a timely manner and prior to the issue of our report.

Audit of SIS Compliance

For the year ended 30 June 2022, we are required to form an opinion in respect of compliance with certain aspects of SIS. Our report must refer to the following sections and regulations:

We are also required to report to the ATO, as regulator, any contravention of the SISA and the SISR, where we believe the contravention may affect the interests of the members of beneficiaries of the fund.

In addition, we are also required under section 130 to report to you if we believe the superannuation fund may be, or may be about to become, in an unsatisfactory financial position. If we are not satisfied with your response as trustee(s) as to the action taken to rectify the situation or we receive no response, we are obliged to report the matter to the ATO.

A failure on the part of the trustee to rectify these breaches to the satisfaction of the ATO may result in significant penalties to the trustee and the fund itself.

In addition to our report on the financial statements, we will also report to you any material weaknesses in the fund's system of accounting and internal control which come to our notice during the course of our audit.

Quality Control

The conduct of our audit in accordance Australian Auditing Standards means that information acquired by us in the course of our audit is subject to strict confidentiality requirements.
