4.1

Trusts:*Constitution of Fund

Despite any other provision of this Deed, the Trustee must be a constitutional corporation unless the Trustees are individuals and in that event and despite any other provision of this Deed the sole or primary purpose of the Fund is the provision of old-age pensions.

The Trustees must ensure that the Fund is maintained solely for one or more of the ancillary purposes provided in the Act.

3.2

Sole Purpose:

- (a) where a reading down or limitation of the operation of the invalid provision would remove the voidness or invalidity, that must be done in construing the Deed;
  - (b) where it is not possible to apply paragraph (a), the invalid provision is severed from the Deed;
  - (c) in any event, an invalid provision does not affect the continued operation of the remainder of the Deed.
- To the extent any provision of this deed would be void or invalid, but for this paragraph ("an invalid provision"):
- 2.6 Saving Provision:
- (a) This Deed and the Rules are governed and construed and take effect in accordance with the laws of the State or Territory of residence of the Trustee (however Section 35(b) of the South Australian Trustees Act 1936 does not apply to this Deed). Any person having or claiming any interest under this Deed must submit to the jurisdiction of the Courts of that State or Territory.
- (b) To the extent any provision of this deed would be void or invalid, but for this provision having or claiming any interest under this Deed must submit to the jurisdiction of the Courts of that State or Territory.

2.6

2.5

- (b) the rulings of the Commissioner and other rulings of the Commissioner;
- (c) the Acts or Laws referred to in (a) and the rulings referred to in (b);
- (d) the Rules and this Deed;
- then the Trustees may determine, either generally or in respect of any particular application, in their absolute discretion, which provision or ruling applies and to the extent that there is any inconsistency between the Rules and this Deed shall prevail.
- This Deed and the Rules are governed and construed and take effect in accordance with the laws of the State or Territory of residence of the Trustee (however Section 35(b) of the South Australian Trustees Act 1936 does not apply to this Deed). Any person having or claiming any interest under this Deed must submit to the jurisdiction of the Courts of that State or Territory.

5. Trustees to give notice to become a regulated fund:
- The Trustees must give to the Commissioner within the period provided by the Superannuation Conditions a written notice in the approved form and signed in the manner required by the SIS Act electing that the Act is to apply in relation to the Fund.
- The purpose of this paragraph is explanatory only. The effect of Section 52 of the SIS Act is that the Trustees' powers in accordance with the SIS Act:-
- (a) to act honestly in all matters concerning the Fund;
- (b) to exercise, in relation to all matters affecting the Fund, the same degree of care, skill and diligence as an ordinary prudent person would exercise in dealing with property of another for whom the person felt morally bound to provide;
- (c) to ensure that the Trustees' duties and powers are performed and exercised in the best interests of the beneficiaries;
- (d) to keep the money and other assets of the Fund separate from any money and assets, respectively:-
- (i) that are held by the Trustees personally, or
- (ii) that are money or assets, as the case may be, of a standard employer-sponsor, employee-sponsor, or an associate of a standard employer-sponsor, the whole of the circumstances of the Fund including, but not limited to, the risk involved in making, holding and realising, and the likely return from the Fund's investments having regard to its objectives and its expected cash flow requirements;
- (e) not to enter into any contract, or do anything else, that would prevent Trustees, beneficiaries and powers; this does not prevent the Trustees from engaging or authorising persons to do acts or things on behalf of the Trustees.
- (f) to formulate and give effect to an investment strategy that has regard to the following:-
- (i) the risk involved in making, holding and realising, and the likely return from the Fund's investments having regard to its objectives and its expected cash flow requirements,
- (ii) the composition of the Fund's investments as a whole including the extent to which the investments are diverse or involve the Fund in being exposed to risks from inadequate diversification;
- (iii) the liquidity of the Fund's investments having regard to its expected cash flow requirements;
- (iv) the ability of the Fund to discharge its existing and prospective liabilities;
- (v) if there are any reserves of the Fund - to formulate and to give effect to a strategy for their prudential management, consistent with the Fund's actual or contingent assets and when they fall due;
- (g) the ability of the Fund to discharge its existing and prospective liabilities;
