Background:

- Trading Pursuits Pty Ltd (hereinafter "Trading Pursuits") is one of the companies in the Trading Pursuits group of companies that provides a range of educational training and support, and products, specialising in teaching clients how to trade a variety of financial instruments, including training for consumers to educate themselves as to trading in stocks, options, CFDs, futures, international foreign exchange and commodities (the "Training Package(s)").
- Trading Pursuits also, on its own behalf or as agent for others (including but not limited to: Trading Pursuits Online Pty Ltd, Spectrum Live Pty Ltd, Market Analyst Pty Ltd), provides data feed services and the entitlement to use software in conjunction with those data feed services, which can assist in the trading of stocks, options, CFDs, futures, international foreign exchange and commodities.
- You (the person named in the personal details on the booking form attached) have decided to purchase the nominated training package and (if applicable) other additional products which are marked on the booking form and on the terms as marked on the booking form and otherwise in accordance with these terms and conditions.

1. Agreement

1.1 Money Back Guarantee: During a cooling off period of 7 days from deposit date, 100% refund will be honoured, less a $150 administration fee: provided that you have not attended any part of the live event indicated on the front page of this booking form within the cooling off period, in which case no refund will be due.

1.2 You agree to pay for the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products in the manner that is indicated on the booking form. You agree that if any due payment is refused or dishonoured after expiry of the initial 7 day cooling off period, the liquidated debt, including by referring the matter to a licenced solicitor or debt collection agency for recovery of the debt and associated costs. You agree that in the event that any payment is refused or dishonoured then Trading Pursuits may cease the provision of any further service to you and that Trading Pursuits will not be liable for any loss that you suffer by reason of that cessation.

1.3 In the event that Trading Pursuits agrees to refund to you any part of the Training Package fee, then you must return to Trading Pursuits the Training Package and any copies or other documents relating to it in good order and condition via courier or Secure Post where all contributing expenses are paid by you.

1.4 You acknowledge that all monthly subscription service charges are automatically charged/debited the same day each month, or until cancelled. Monthly charges will automatically renew each month. To cancel any monthly product, you acknowledge that you must deliver a written termination notice, (via fax or email, return receipt requested) at least seven (7) calendar days before the monthly charge is scheduled to be charged/debited. You acknowledge that there will be no partial or pro rata refunds.

1.5 You acknowledge that Trading Pursuits retains the right to discontinue free member services, or to exclude particular clients from any of these services, with 24 hours notice and at its complete discretion.

1.6 Where a default of payment occurs on any applicable payment plan, Trading Pursuits reserves the right to withhold registration to any live event and temporarily deactivate report services until such time all payments have been recovered.

2. Reservations and acknowledgements

2.1 You warrant that you have purchased this product for the sole purpose of self-education. You acknowledge that the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products is based on example or demonstration trades only. You warrant and represent that you will not engage in live trading based on any information or examples provided and that if you do so you indemnify Trading Pursuits in relation to all claims and losses suffered by you or anyone else in relation to that trading.

2.2 Trading Pursuits does not provide personal advice. The nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products is not designed for, nor should it be understood by you as being for, the purpose of providing personal financial or investment advice.

2.3 Any advice contained in the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional product is general advice only and is given without taking account of any person's objectives, financial situation or needs. For advice which does take into account personal objectives, financial situation or needs you should see an Australian Financial Services licensee licensed to give such advice.

2.4 Before acting on any advice in the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products you should consider the appropriateness of the advice, having regard to your objectives, financial situation and needs.

2.5 Trading in financial products involves significant risk. You must be aware of the risks and be willing to accept them in order to trade in financial products. Trading on margin or leveraged trading carries additional risk. You should never trade using money you cannot afford to lose. Trading in financial products is not a part of the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products.

2.6 If any information in the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products relates to the acquisition, or possible acquisition, of a particular financial product (such as a CFD, a futures contract, or margin foreign exchange) you should obtain a Product Disclosure Statement relating to the product and consider the Statement before making any decision about whether to acquire the financial product.

2.7 None of the information and data contained in the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products nor any opinion expressed, constitutes a recommendation to purchase, hold or sell a financial product, or to provide investment advice. The information and data relate to example or demonstration trades only.

2.8 The example trades contained on the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products are hypothetical. Example trades are provided for illustrative purposes only and should not be construed as investment advice or strategy to suit you. Hypothetical performance results are simulated and have many inherent limitations. As the trades have not actually been executed, the results may have under or over compensated for any impact of certain market factors, such as lack of liquidity. We make no representation that any actual trades will or are likely to achieve profits or losses similar to any example trades contained in the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products. Hypothetical trades do not involve financial risk. For example, the ability to withstand losses or to adhere to a particular trading program in spite of trading losses are important issues which may adversely affect actual trading results.

2.9 Any methods, techniques, or indicators presented on the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products are for educational purposes only and are presented to assist you to make your own judgments on any prospective trades (for which you are responsible). They should not be construed as investment advice or strategy for you. We make no representation that the use of any methods, techniques, or indicators presented in the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products will or are likely to achieve any intended results.

2.10 You accept all risks and responsibility for losses, damages, costs and other consequences resulting directly or indirectly from using the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products and any information or material available from or through it.

2.11 To the fullest extent permissible by law, we disclaim all warranties in relation to the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products, express or implied, including, but not limited to, implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose. To the fullest extent permissible by law, we will not be liable for any damages of any kind arising from the use of the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products, including, but not limited to direct, indirect, incidental, punitive, and consequential damages.

2.12 Our liability for negligence, breach of contract or contravention of any law as a result of any problems with the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products, which cannot be lawfully excluded, is limited, at our option and to the maximum extent permitted by law, to resupplying, or to paying for the resupply of, the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products.

2.13 Any information or data contained in the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products are historical and provide no indication of future performance.

2.14 Although every attempt has been made to ensure the accuracy and completeness of any information or data contained in the nominated Training Package and (if applicable) other additional products, we do not give any express or implied warranty as to its accuracy or accept any liability for error or omission.

2.15 You acknowledge that you are required to attend all live events within two (2) years of purchasing a package that includes (a) live seminar(s), or otherwise forfeit the attendance eligibility.

2.16 You also acknowledge that restrictions apply for live event reschedules/postponements. You are entitled to reschedule once with at least 7 days' notice before the event. Less than 7 days' notice or no-shows at the event will be regarded as a forfeiture of your live placement, and further attendances will be charged the re-attendance fee. The seminar re-attendance fee is subject to change without notice.

2.17 Information, venue and event dates are subject to change. Trading Pursuits is not responsible for any cancellation or rescheduling of venues, events, or for changes in the program. In the case of rescheduling of an event, tickets will be transferred to the new date.

2.18 You acknowledge that in the event you are purchasing a family member or spouse package, if the full paying member defaults on payment we are within our rights to suspend components of your program including live event attendance and access to the reports. In the event the full paying member cancels the program, you understand that in order to continue with it, you will be required to upgrade to the full paying member.

3. Limited right of refund

3.1 You acknowledge that you also have, provided that it is exercised within 30 days of the period starting on the date initial payment was processed, the entitlement to request a refund of any money that you have paid if you demonstrate that you are not satisfied (on reasonable grounds) with the training course or its contents. You acknowledge that Trading Pursuits has discretion as to whether or not Trading Pursuits is satisfied with the basis upon which you have requested a refund, and that Trading Pursuits shall require you to:

- Provide a written report as to the basis upon which you are not satisfied and you acknowledge that you must make a reasonable and genuine attempt to participate and to achieve the desired outcome of the training;
- Demonstrate that the deficiency is not simply that you are not suited to this type of activity, but rather it must be a deficiency in the goods and services provided by Trading Pursuits;
- Return to Trading Pursuits the original copies (and any other copies) of the Training Package in an 'as new' condition;
- Have commenced participation in the training course from the date of this agreement.

3.2 Trading Pursuits warrants its product to be free from defects for a period of 12 months from date of purchase. Its obligation under this warranty is limited to repairing or replacing, at its sole option, any such defected products. Trading Pursuits only covers operational or mechanical failure and does not include protection against normal wear and tear, theft, misplacement, negligence, viruses, willful or intentional damage associated with handling and use of the product.

4. Release

4.1 To the fullest extent possible at law, you release Trading Pursuits from any claim action or demand arising from any loss, cost or damage by reason of your use of the Training Package, propriety and non-propriety software and or the data feed services and you acknowledge that Trading Pursuits will not be under any liability to you for any such loss, including any loss arising from an interruption to the data feed services and including any loss arising from any trades in financial products.

4.2 Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, in no case shall Trading Pursuits' liability to you exceed the total amount of the fees that you have paid in respect to this agreement.
