- (a) in deposits at call or for fixed terms with any bank, building society, or other financial institution;

Any profit or loss resulting from the revaluation, including provision for liabilities as the Trustee considers prudent, shall be credited or debited, as the case may be, in accordance with Rule 6.5. accept an assignment of any such policy or accept an assignment of any rights or benefits in respect of any annuity.

- (c) The premiums for each policy shall be paid out of the Employer's contributions in respect of each Member and the Member's contributions in such proportions as are agreed by the Trustee and the Member and in the absence of agreement, out of the Employer's contributions.
- (d) The Trustee shall have the power to continue a policy for such period as it thinks fit or to discontinue or surrender it.
- (e) The Trustee may at the request of a Member and with the consent of the Employer make a separate investment or accept a transfer of assets pursuant to Rule 7.5 on behalf of that Member. The Trustee shall record on whose behalf the investment is made or transfer of assets accepted for the purpose of establishing an Individual Member's Account in respect thereof. - (c) The Trustee may require information as to:
- (i) the period of membership of the Member with a previous fund;
 - (ii) the period of service of the Member with a previous employer in respect of which the assets so transferred represent benefits accrued to the Member including (where relevant) an allocation of those benefits between different periods;

The Trustee may, however, disregard that statement of preference and apply that amount for the benefit of such one or more Dependants or nominated beneficiaries of the deceased Member in such shares and in such manner as the Trustee determines or it may pay the benefit to the legal personal representative of the deceased Member.

- 9.2 The Trustee shall make the determinations referred to in Rule 9.1 within six months of being notified of the death of a Member and shall notify the beneficiaries in writing. If the Trustee concludes that a Member has no beneficiaries at the time of his death or is unable to determine who they are and no determinations and notifications are made by the Trustee within six months of death the amount referred to in Rule 9.1 shall be transferred to the Member's legal personal representative. If no grant of Probate or Letters of Administration shall have been made in the estate of the Member within two years from the date of his death, or such longer period as the Trustee shall determine, then the Trustee shall apply the amount in accordance with Rule 13.

- 10.1 If the employment by the Employer of a Member is terminated as a result of Permanent Disablement the Trustee shall, subject to the other provisions of these Rules and the requirements of the Relevant Law, apply the amount standing to the credit of the Member's Individual Member's Account including the proceeds of any policy of disability insurance to pay benefits to the Member or as he directs in writing or, in the event of his being unable to manage his affairs, to such one or more of his Dependants and in such proportions as the Trustee determines.
- 10.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of Clause 10.1, a Member who has ceased full-time or part-time gainful employment because of ill-health (whether physical or mental) which prevents him from engaging in employment of the kind that he engaged in at the onset of the ill-health may remain as a Member of the Fund and the Trustee may accept on his behalf contributions which are not Mandated Employer Contributions.

WITHDRAWAL OR EARLY RETIREMENT BENEFIT

- 12.1 If the employment by the Employer of a Member is terminated before the Normal Retirement Date otherwise than in the circumstances referred to in Rules 9.1 or 10.1, and his next Employer does not make any contributions to the Fund on his behalf, the Trustee shall, subject to the other provisions of these Rules, apply the amount standing to the credit of the Member's Individual Member's Account to pay benefits to the Member or as he shall direct in writing.
- 11.2 Any part of the amount standing to the credit of the Individual Member's Account which is not paid or transferred to the Member shall be applied by the Trustee in accordance with Rule 13.1.
- 11.3 Any benefit that is required by the Relevant Law to be preserved will be credited to the Member's Preserved Contribution Account or applied by the Trustee pursuant to Rule 7.
