BOTH PARTIES AGREE THAT

Unforeseen Event Inspections

19. If something happens to the premises so that the whole or a substantial part can no longer be occupied, and the parties are in no way responsible, then either party shall have the right to terminate the lease, provided written notice is given within fourteen days of the event.

20. The landlord or his agent shall inspect the premises at the commencement of the lease and on its termination and take note of their condition including state of cleanliness, state or repair, and working order of appliances.

Repairs

21. The tenant shall have repaired in a proper way any damage to the premises resulting from neglect or a deliberate or careless act or breach of any condition of the lease by the tenant or any person on the premises with his consent.

a) Except as in condition 20, the landlord shall carry out without delay all reasonable repairs necessary for the tenant's ordinary use and occupation of the premises, having regard to the condition of the premises at the commencement of the lease.

Access

22. The landlord shall respect the tenants right to privacy.

a) The tenant shall allow access to the landlord or his agent:

i) When it is reasonable that they or either of them should view the condition of the premises or carry out repair, or

ii) To erect 'to let' signs and to show the premises to intending purchasers, after the landlord has given the tenant notice of his wish to sell.

b) The landlord shall give the tenant reasonable notice of the time and date for such access. As far as possible it shall be convenient for both parties.

c) The landlord may have access at any time with the consent of the tenant or in the case of an emergency

Costs

23. The tenant shall pay all reasonable costs relating to the lease, including stamp duty.

a) The landlord shall pay all other costs relating to his management of the premises.

Mitigation	26. Where there has been a breach of any of the conditions of the lease by either party, the other party shall take all responsible steps to minimise any resultant loss or damage.
Payment after Notice	27. After a notice terminating the lease or demanding immediate possession has been given, any acceptance of or demand for rent or money by the landlord shall not itself be evidence of a new lease with the tenant or alter the legal effect of notice. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Where the tenant unlawfully remains in possession after the termination of the lease, the landlord is entitled, in addition to any other claim, to payments equal to the rent as compensation for the use and occupation of the premises.
Disputes	28. In any dispute or proceeding between the parties, both parties shall act reasonably and without delay and make all admissions necessary to enable the real issues to be decided.
Termination	29. Where the lease has become a periodic lease from month to month either party may terminate it by giving one month's written notice. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) The landlord shall have the right to re-enter the premises peacefully or to continue the lease as a periodic lease from week to week <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i) Where the tenant has failed to pay rent for period in excess of fourteen days, whether formally demanded or not, or ii) Where the tenant has seriously or persistently breached any of the conditions of the lease, or iii) Upon the tenant being declared bankrupt or insolvent according to the law or making any assignment for the benefit of creditors or taking the benefit of any Act now or hereafter to be in force for the relief of bankrupts or insolvents (section 85(1)(d) of the Conveyancing Act 1919, as amended, is hereby varied accordingly. b) If the landlord intends to exercise his right to continue the lease as a periodic lease from week to week, he shall serve the tenant with a written notice stating the reason and informing the tenant of the variation to the lease. Upon service of the notice, the lease shall continue with all its conditions, except for the term holding over conditions, as periodic lease from week to week which may be terminated by the one weeks written notice from either party. c) If the landlord intends to exercise his right to re-enter, he shall serve the tenant with a written notice stating the reason and demanding immediate possession.

- d) The landlord shall have the right to re-enter the premises without giving notice, if he has reasonable grounds to believe that they have been abandoned.
- e) The tenant shall have the right to terminate the lease if the landlord has seriously or persistently breached any of its conditions; he shall give the landlord fourteen days written notice, indicating at the same time the nature of the breach.
- f) Any action by the landlord or tenant in accordance with conditions 30(c), (d), (e), (f) or (g), shall not affect any claim for damages in respect of a breach of a condition of the lease.
- g) The tenant may remove his fixtures and shall remove his signs provided that any damage or defacement occasioned to any part of the premises in the course of such removal shall be remedied by the tenant immediately and at his own expense. If he fails to do so the landlord may do so at the tenant's expense.
- h) Upon the termination or determination of the lease for any cause the tenant shall promptly and peacefully give vacant possession of the premises in the condition and state of repair required by conditions 11 and 20 of the lease, and at the same time hand over all keys.

Parting with Possession

30. The tenant shall not assign or sub-let or part with possession of the premises or any part thereof except with the written consent of the landlord.
- a) The landlord shall not withhold his consent unreasonably, provided that the tenant gives him fourteen days' notice and the tenant pay's any reasonable expenses involved in the landlord giving consent.

Cleaning

31. The tenant will from time to time pay to the landlord the sums demanded by him for cleaning the premises and such sums shall be added to the rent and be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the rent and be recovered in the same manner as the rent is recoverable.
- a) The landlord shall not be responsible to the tenant for any loss of property from the premises however occurring or for any damage done to the furniture or other effects of any tenant by the caretaker or any employees of the landlord or by any other person or persons whomsoever.

Renewal

32. The tenant shall give the landlord or his agent not more than six (6) months and not less than three (3) months prior to the expiration of the term granted in this lease notice in writing if he wishes to take a renewal of the lease for the further term offered. Provided he has duly and punctually paid the rent and shall have duly performed and observed on his part all the conditions and agreements contained in this lease up to the expiration of the term granted, then the landlord will at the cost of the tenant grant to him the further term at a rent which would at such time be current market rental of the premises.

- a) In the event of any dispute between the landlord and the tenant as to such rent the rent shall be determined by the president of the Real Estate Institute of New South Wales or his appointee. The total rent is not to be less than the total rent payable just prior to the expiration of this lease and the lease shall be subject to all other conditions as are contained in this lease with the exception of the option condition. The costs of such rental determination shall be borne in equal shares by the parties unless otherwise agreed.
