WE'RE REMINDING YOU ABOUT INFORMATION REGARDING YOUR ANZ VISA DEBIT CARD

We wanted to remind you about what to do if you need to dispute a transaction on your ANZ Visa Debit card.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

ANZ has a process in place to help you with any incorrect or unknown transactions charged to your account.

WHAT YOU CAN DO IF THIS HAPPENS

If you believe you're entitled to have the transaction reversed, you should let us know immediately. The operating rules for the Visa card scheme impose time limits for raising a dispute. Generally under the Scheme Rules ANZ must lodge a fully detailed claim on your behalf within 120 days¹. We recommend that you raise your dispute with us as soon as possible, so that we have sufficient time to get all of the information and documents ready to lodge a claim within the time limit. If you do not notify us of your disputed transaction and provide us with all necessary details in time for ANZ to meet this deadline, ANZ may not be able to assist you in having the disputed transaction reversed.

If you're disputing a transaction on an ANZ Access Visa Debit card (used either directly or with a mobile payment²) on the basis that you did not authorise the transaction then the time limits within the Visa Scheme Rules may not apply³. However, you should still let us know about your dispute as soon as you can.

If we're satisfied after an investigation that you're entitled to have the transaction reversed, we'll credit your account for the amount originally debited for the transaction.

If we're not notified in time, we may not be able to investigate your claim which means you'll be liable for the transaction made on your account. To make sure this doesn't happen, it's important to review your statements carefully.

VERIFIED BY VISA TRANSACTIONS

It's only possible to reverse a transaction that's been authenticated using Verified by Visa where ANZ are liable as explained in your Electronic Banking Conditions of Use.
