AMMA tax statement glossary 30 June 2022

We have prepared this glossary to assist individual taxpayers to understand key terms and phrases on their Attribution Managed investment trust Member Annual (AMMA) statement.

This information is not a substitute for professional tax advice. We recommend you seek professional tax advice before completing your tax return.

General terms

Term	Description
AMMA statement	The Attribution Managed investment trust Member Annual (AMMA) statement provides attribution, cash distribution and cost base adjustment information for your income tax return.
Attribution	Your share of the income of the fund that has been attributed to you for the financial year.
Cash distribution	The amount that the fund has paid you in cash during the financial year.

Australian income

Term	Description
Franked distributions	Your share of franked distributions. Your share of franking credits in relation to franked distributions is provided in the Tax Paid/Offset column. Franking credit is included in the attributed franked distributions that form part of assessable income in your tax return. You may be entitled to tax offsets to reduce your income tax payable or receive a refund from the ATO.
Unfranked distributions	No franking credits are attached to these distributions.
Unfranked Conduit Foreign Income (CFI) distributions	If you are an Australian resident for tax purposes you need to declare this amount in your assessable income as unfranked distributions. No franking credits are attached to these distributions.
Interest (Subject to non-resident withholding tax)	Interest earned on amounts such as cash or fixed interest on securities held in Australia which are subject to non-resident withholding tax. If you are an Australian tax resident investor, you need to declare this amount in your assessable income as interest income.

Term	Description
Interest (Not subject to non-resident withholding tax)	Interest earned on amounts such as cash or fixed interest on securities held in Australia which are not subject to non-resident withholding tax. If you are an Australian tax resident investor, you need to declare this amount in your assessable income as interest income.

Clean Building MIT Income	A clean building MIT is one that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • holds one or more clean buildings, including the land in which the buildings are situated • does not derive assessable income from any taxable Australian property other than from the clean buildings or assets that are reasonably incidental to those buildings.

A clean building MIT is allowed to hold and receive income from any assets reasonably incidental to clean buildings provided that the income received from those assets is less than 5% of the total income received from clean buildings.

A building is a clean building if:

- the construction of the building commenced on or after 1 July 2012 the building is a commercial building that is an office building, hotel or shopping centre, or a combination of these
- the building meets and continues to maintain at all times during the income year at least a 5 Star Green Star rating as certified by the Green Building Council of Australia or a 5.5 star energy rating as accredited by the National Australian Built Environment Rating System.

A building is taken to have commenced construction when the works on the lowest level, including the basement level, of the building begins. Site preparation for construction and works undertaken below the lowest level of the building such as excavation or site stabilisation works do not amount to commencement of construction.

A concessionary rate of 10% applies to fund payments by a clean building MIT.

Non-Concessional Managed Investment Trust ("MIT") Income	An amount of a fund payment will be non-concessional MIT income ("NCMI") if it is attributable to income that is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • MIT cross staple arrangement income; • MIT trading trust income; • MIT agricultural income; • MIT residential housing income.

These amendments apply from 1 July 2019. Transitional rules apply to appropriately protect existing arrangements from the impact of the amendments – please see the 'Excluded from NCMI' section for more details.

To improve the integrity of the income tax law for arrangements involving stapled structures and to limit access to tax concessions for foreign investors, the managed investment trust (MIT) withholding rate on fund payments that are attributable to non-concessional MIT income has been changed to 30%.
