

Super transfer balance account report

Who should complete this report?

Super providers and life insurance companies should complete this report when:

- there is a transfer balance account reporting requirement
- further information is required to calculate a member's total super balance
- further information is required to determine a member's concessional contributions amount.

The obligation to report is on:

- the trustee of the fund for a super fund, including self-managed super funds (SMSFs) or an approved deposit fund (ADF)
- the retirement savings account (RSA) provider for an RSA
- a director of the life insurance company for a life insurance company.

Instructions

Follow the Super transfer balance account report instructions for assistance when completing this report.

Only one event for each member account can be reported on a Super transfer balance account report. If you have multiple events or multiple member accounts to report you must complete and lodge separate reports for each event and member account.

Where a Super transfer balance account report for a member needs to be cancelled, you will need to complete this report exactly the same as the report originally lodged with us. The only difference will be the cancellation indicator in Section B will contain an X in the Yes box. If you are cancelling a previous report due to an error, you will need to lodge a new report with the correct information.

Completing this report

- Print clearly, using a BLACK pen only.
- Use BLOCK LETTERS and print one character per box.
