 IMPORTANT ACCOUNT INFORMATION

This notice re-establishes that Wells Fargo has the right to conduct setoff for overdrawn deposit account balances, where applicable, and in accordance with your governing Deposit Account Agreement. When we exercise this right, we may reduce funds in any account you hold with us for purposes of paying the amount of the debt, either due or past due, that is owed to us as allowed by the laws governing your account. Our right of setoff won't apply if it would invalidate the tax-deferred status of any tax-deferred retirement account (e.g., a SEP or an IRA) you keep with us. To review a copy of your Deposit Account Agreement, including the provisions related to the right of setoff, please visit wellsfargo.com/online-banking/consumer-account-fees/.

When you don't have a sufficient available balance in your account (or in accounts linked for Overdraft Protection as described below), the decision to authorize or pay a transaction into overdraft is made at our sole discretion, and we reserve the right to decline or return a transaction that would result in an overdraft. We reserve this discretion regardless of whether we've previously honored or dishonored overdrafts.

We base our decision to authorize or pay a transaction into overdraft on criteria that includes, but is not limited to, your account history, deposits you make, and transaction characteristics.

When you make or schedule payments to a merchant (including payments made through another service provider, such as a digital wallet or other payment platform), it is important for you to understand your rights and responsibilities under any applicable

Effective March 15, 2023, we are changing the following paragraph in the "Our right to decline deposits" subsection within the "Depositing Funds" section of the Deposit Account Agreement:

We may decline all or part of a deposit, including cash, for any reason. This could happen, for example, if a payee isn't a co-owner, authorized signer, or authorized representative on your account, we can't verify an endorsement, the check was issued from a credit account, the dollar amount of the deposit, the check looks suspicious, or it's a non-U.S. item. If we decline a deposit that you mailed to us, we may return it to you at your cost (including charging you for postage and handling to return foreign currency coin or paper), or retain any invalid checks or other documents included in the deposit without crediting your account, at our discretion.

The new paragraph is as follows:

We may decline all or part of a deposit, including cash, for any reason. This could happen, for example, if a payee isn't a co-owner, authorized signer, or authorized representative on your account, we can't verify an endorsement, the check was issued from a credit account, the dollar amount of the deposit, the check looks suspicious, or it's a non-U.S. item. If we decline a deposit that you mailed to us, we may return it to you at your cost (including charging you for postage and handling to return foreign currency coin or paper), or retain any invalid checks or other documents included in the deposit without crediting your account, at our discretion. There are limits on the total dollar amount of checks that can be deposited at Wells Fargo ATMs per transaction. We may decline check deposits that exceed $1 million.
