Keep your data safe

Your ID numbers give access to your personal information. Only share with authorised people.

Paying by Instalments

If you pay by Instalments and miss a payment, or make a late payment, the payment plan will be cancelled.

Daily interest will be calculated and applied from the first due date.

If you are selling land

All outstanding land tax needs to be paid before a clear land tax certificate can be issued.

If you believe your Assessment is incorrect

If you have additional information that we haven't previously considered, you should lodge a return. You should do this through www.revenue.nsw.gov.au/landtax on or before the first due date of this notice.

If you believe we have applied the legislation incorrectly, you can lodge a formal objection at www.revenue.nsw.gov.au/objections. You must lodge the objection together with your reasons and supporting evidence within 60 days of the issue date of this notice.

You must still pay by the due date even if you have lodged an objection as interest will be imposed on any overdue amounts. A refund will be issued to you if your objection is successful.

Land value

The Valuer General determines land values as at 1 July in the year prior to the land tax assessment year as shown on your assessment. Revenue NSW use these values to calculate land tax.

If you disagree with your land value you can go to www.valuergeneral.nsw.gov.au for more information about land values and the review process. You have 60 days from the issue date on your assessment notice to lodge an objection to the land value.

Note: if you object to your land value you must still pay your land tax assessment by the due date as interest will apply to any overdue amounts.
