Consider the risks of cancelling or replacing your cover

We're providing the following information as part of our commitment under the Life Insurance Code of Practice to help you understand the risks of cancelling and/or replacing your cover.

Life insurance is designed to offer an amount of financial protection should the unforeseen occur, or if you are unable to work due to sickness or injury. There can be risks when cancelling or replacing your insurance cover that we need to make sure you are aware of. These could include:

The consequences of being medically underwritten for a new insurance policy in the future. When you apply for a new insurance policy, you will need to answer medical questions and go through an underwriting process. This means your health, income and pastimes may be assessed again at that time, and changes to your health since your existing policy was taken out could affect you. It may result in limitations or exclusions on what you can claim for, loadings being placed on the premiums to be paid for your new cover making it more expensive, or even being declined for the provision of cover.

Not all policies are the same. It may appear that you can get the same cover for less if you shop around, however, not all life insurance policies are alike. You should carefully consider the terms and conditions in both the current and new Product Disclosure Statements (and any other associated policy documentation). If you cancel and replace cover under a new policy, it will likely be subject to different terms and conditions to the current policy you have now, and may affect what you can claim for and how much your benefit will be.

Claiming after cancellation. You may not be able to claim for a condition that arises after your existing cover is cancelled.

Timing of replacement cover. You may want to consider not cancelling your existing cover until any replacement cover is in place.

Given that life insurance is intended to provide financial protection in the event of your death or specified illness or injury, you should fully consider your personal financial obligations before cancelling your existing cover.

Important: If your policy is cancelled, you may not be able to reinstate your cover. The 'reinstatement of cover' option is only available for policies which commenced under a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) dated on or after 28 April 2006. Policies which commenced under an earlier PDS (dated prior to 28 April 2006) cannot be reinstated after they are cancelled.

If you're experiencing financial hardship/loss of income/difficulty in paying premiums

When premiums increase it might become challenging to manage the rising cost of staying covered and financially protected. Our policies are designed to be flexible, so there may be ways you can adjust your cover amount, reduce your benefits and/or remove or alter benefit options to reduce your premiums, if your policy allows you to do so, rather than having to cancel it. You may also be able to apply for a Premium Holiday for a period of time.

If you are facing financial hardship or finding it difficult to pay your premiums, please talk to your financial adviser or call us on 1300 553 764 for assistance.

Before you make any changes to your cover, you should consider obtaining independent financial advice to decide whether your insurance cover is suitable for your personal requirements. Your adviser can assess your financial situation and explore options and strategies for your current and long-term needs.

If you need to make a claim

Call us as soon as you can on 1300 553 764 between 8.00am to 6:30pm, Monday to Friday (Sydney and Melbourne time). Alternatively, email us at lifecclaims@btfinancialgroup.com

We may ask you a few questions to help us work out what type of claim you need to make so that we can send you the correct information. You will be assigned a Claims Consultant, who will assist you with your claim. For selected Income Protection and Living Insurance claims we may be able to assess your claim on the spot, over the phone. Further information on claiming and the steps involved can be found online at bt.com.au/lifecclaims
