

The $945 payment relates to super for part of the March quarter. The original payment was rejected by the QBO super clearing house, so was processed manually. I've included the dates that it may have related to, the payroll payments report and the super payment batch showing the failed payment - hence it would have been processed manually.