

Search results

UNIQUE SUPERANNUATION IDENTIFIER

11452 results

All (11452)	Tools & calculators (54)	Rates & codes (190)	Forms & publications (320)	Legal database (76098)
-------------	--------------------------	---------------------	----------------------------	------------------------

USI and product names

The Unique Superannuation Identifier (USI) is used in SuperStream to identify an APRA fund

Superannuation Administration Group | Australian Taxation Office

The Superannuation Administration Group identifies and resolves administrative matters impacting the superannuation system.

General / Consultation / Consultation-groups / Stakeholder-relationship-groups

20-Dec-2019

Superannuation | Australian Taxation Office

If you have a disability, you should be aware of the superannuation rules that regulate when you can access your super.

Individuals / people-with-disability

07-Oct-2016

Tax Office definitions

Unique superannuation identifier (USI)

Identifies a super product within an APRA-regulated fund. The USI may be the APRA-regulated fund's ABN with three additional digits, or the fund's current super product identification number (SPIN). SMSFs don't have a USI – the ABN acts as the fund identifier.

