Section 4 - Terms and Conditions
The Sender (you) agrees: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> We (the Bank) may use other banks to process this transaction. Money sent overseas is usually available for payment to the beneficiary within two business days (Australian time) of our accepting your instructions. We are not liable for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> any loss suffered as a result of us acting on these instructions in good faith except where our negligence causes the loss; or any delays in payment to the beneficiary by overseas banks. Other banks may charge processing fees which they may deduct from the payment. If another bank separately charges us a processing fee you must reimburse us for that fee. We can give you an estimate of the fees but the actual amounts can vary and may be significant. Other banks may convert the currency sent into other currencies. In some cases, they may first convert the currency sent to an intermediate currency (such as U.S. dollars or Euros) prior to conversion to the desired ending currency. This could happen even where the currency sent and the desired ending currency is Australian dollars. We may offer to request non conversion, however other banks may ignore our instruction in which case we are not liable for any resultant loss or shortfall. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> You must pay us our fees, and any costs we incur to make enquiries to other banks regarding payment, payment amendment or payment cancellation as set out in our brochure Standard Fees and Charges for International Payments and Travel Funds. We may decline to process this transaction if we believe in good faith that processing the transaction may breach laws, e.g. relating to anti-money laundering or sanctions. We collect personal info to: identify you for the Anti-Money Laundering/CTF Act; share with third parties to complete transactions; or use it as per our Privacy Policy (which includes how to access, correct or provide feedback on your info). If funds are returned, they will be converted back to the original currency at the prevailing rate on the day of return. If any provision of this agreement is found to be illegal, void or unenforceable for unfairness or any other reason, the remaining provisions of this agreement will continue to apply to the extent possible as if the void or unenforceable provision never existed.
