Our funds management business continues to perform strongly. During the period Magellan saw a 9% growth in average funds under management to $103.7 billion. Profit before tax and performance fees of our funds management business increased 10% to $526.6 million, reflecting the increase in average funds under management and cost efficiencies.

We were also very pleased to launch a number of new funds and strategic initiatives during the period. These include the MFG Core Series, Magellan Sustainable Fund and Magellan FuturePay, all of which we believe uniquely address a market need and are well positioned for the future.

Further, we are delighted with Magellan Capital Partners' three new strategic investments. FinClear, Guzman y Gomez and Barrenjoey Capital Partners have all performed strongly over the year and we are excited by their future prospects."

Establishment of dividend reinvestment plan

Magellan also today announced the establishment of a dividend reinvestment plan (DRP) to enable shareholders to reinvest all or part of their dividends at a small discount to market price with no brokerage charges.
