The Takeover Panel has declined to conduct proceedings on an application dated 10 February 2012 from Payce Industries Pty Ltd in relation to the affairs of RCL Group Limited. The application concerned certain clauses in financing facilities that gave rise to a 'review event' (or 'event of default') upon changes to RCL's board of directors (or key persons), which the applicant submitted entrenched the incumbent directors and certain management and acted as a 'poison pill' (see TP12/03). The Panel was satisfied that the exercise of the lender's contractual rights as a consequence of changes to RCL's board of directors or key persons, was not, without more, a control transaction in the relevant (Chapter 6) sense.	17/02/2012
