2. The Company is formed for the purpose of acting solely as the trustee of a regulated superannuation fund within the meaning of section 19 of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (C'th).
3. The income and property of the Company, from wherever it is derived, shall be applied solely towards the purpose as set out in Clause 2 of this Constitution and, notwithstanding any provision of this Constitution, no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise, to its Members PROVIDED THAT nothing herein shall prevent the payment, in good faith, to a Member of:
- (1) reasonable remuneration in return for services actually rendered to the Company or goods supplied to it in the ordinary course of business;

 - (4) Subject to Sections 254J and 254K of the Law they shall, at the option of the Company, be liable to be redeemed at the consideration paid for the "I" redeemable preference share on or before 30 June 2050, by giving written notice to the holders at their respective registered addresses and each such notice shall be accompanied by the Company's cheque for the amount payable to the holder to whom such notice is sent.  - (4) In all other respects the "J" shares shall have the same rights and privileges and shall rank equally with the Ordinary shares.

ISSUE OF SHARES AND VARIATION OF RIGHTS

17. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares but subject to the Law, shares in the Company may be issued by the Directors and any such share may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or such restrictions, whether with regard to dividend, voting, return of capital or otherwise, as the Directors, subject to any resolution, determine.
18. Subject to the Law, the Company may issue preference shares which are, or at the option of the Company are, liable to be redeemed and such power may be exercised by the Directors.
19. (1) If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class may be varied or cancelled with the consent in writing of the holders of the issued shares who are entitled to at least 75% of the votes that may be cast in respect of shares of that class, or by a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.
- (2) The provisions of this Constitution relating to meetings of the Company's Members apply so far as they are capable of application to every such separate meeting of the Member(s) of a class of shares except that:
- (a) where there is more than one member of a class, a quorum is constituted by two persons, each being a Member or a proxy or Representative of a Member, who between them hold or represent one-third of the issued shares of the class; or
 - (b) where there is one member of a class, a quorum is constituted by that Member or a proxy or Representative of that Member; and
 - (c) any holder of shares of the class, present in person or by proxy or by Representative, may demand a poll.
- (3) The rights attached to an existing class of preference shares shall be taken to be varied by the issue of new preference shares that rank equally with those existing preference shares unless the new issue is authorised by:
- (a) the terms of issue of the existing preference shares; or
 - (b) the Company's constitution (if any) as in force when the existing preference shares were issued.
20. (1) The Company may pay brokerage or commission to a person in respect of that person or another person agreeing to take up shares in the Company.
- (2) Payments by way of brokerage or commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash by the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly by the payment of cash and partly by the allotment of fully or partly paid shares.
21. (1) Except as required by law, the Company shall not recognise a person holding a share upon any trust.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided by this Constitution or by law, the Company is not bound by or compelled in any way to recognise (whether or not it has notice of the interest or rights concerned) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or unit of a share or any other right in respect of a share except an absolute right of ownership in the registered holder.
22. (1) A person whose name is entered as a Member in the register of Members is entitled without payment to receive a certificate in respect of the share issued in accordance with the Law under the Seal or in such other manner permitted under the Law as the Directors determine but, in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons, the Company is not bound to issue more than one certificate.

- (2) Delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders is sufficient delivery to all such holders.

LIEN

23. (1) The Company has a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all money (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share.
(2) The Company has a first and paramount lien on all shares (other than fully paid shares) registered in the name of a sole holder for all money presently payable by him or his estate to the Company.
(3) The Directors may at any time exempt a share wholly or in part from the provisions of this Clause.
(4) The company's lien (if any) on a share extends to all dividends payable in respect of the share.
24. (1) Subject to Clause 24.(2), the Company may sell, in such manner as the Directors think fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien.
(2) A share on which the Company has a lien shall not be sold unless:
(a) a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable; and
(b) the Company has, not less than 14 days before the date of the sale, given to the registered holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled to the share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the registered holder a notice in writing setting out, and demanding payment of, such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable.
25. (1) For the purpose of giving effect to a sale mentioned in Clause 24, the Directors may authorise a person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser of the shares.
(2) The Company shall register the purchaser as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer and he is not bound to see to the application of the purchase money.
(3) The title of the purchaser to the shares is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in connection with the sale.
26. The proceeds of a sale mentioned in Clause 24 shall be applied by the Company in payment first of the expenses of the sale, then of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue (if any) shall (subject to any like lien for sums not presently payable, that existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

27. (1) The Directors may make calls upon the Members in respect of any money unpaid on the shares of the Members and not by the terms of issue of those shares made payable at fixed times.
(2) Each Member shall, upon receiving at least 14 days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment, pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares.
(3) The Directors may revoke or postpone a call.
28. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalments.
29. The joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of the share.
30. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment of the sum, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment of the sum to the time of actual payment at such rate as the Directors determine, but the Directors may waive payment of that interest wholly or in part.
31. Any sum that, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable on allotment or at a fixed date shall for the purposes of this Constitution be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the sum becomes payable, and, in case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of this Constitution as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise apply as if the sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
32. The Directors may, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.
33. (1) The Directors may accept from a Member the whole or a part of the amount unpaid on a share although no part of that amount has been called up.
(2) The Directors may authorise payment by the Company of interest upon the whole or any part of an amount so accepted, until the amount becomes payable, at such rate, not exceeding the prescribed rate, as is agreed upon between the Directors and the Member paying the sum.
(3) for the purpose of Clause 33.(2), the prescribed rate of interest is:
(a) if the Company has, by resolution, fixed a rate - the rate so fixed; and
(b) in any other case - 8% per annum.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

34. (1) Subject to this Constitution, a Member may transfer all or any of his shares by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or in any other form that the Directors approve.
(2) An instrument of transfer referred to in Clause 34.(1) shall be executed by or on behalf of both the transferor and the transferee.
(3) A transferor of shares remains the holder of the shares transferred until the transfer is registered and the name of the transferee is entered in the register of Members in respect of the shares.
35. The instrument of transfer must be left for registration at the registered office of the Company, accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates and such other information as the Directors properly require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer, and thereupon the Company shall, subject to the powers vested in the Directors by this Constitution, register the transferee as a Member.
36. (1) The Directors in their absolute and uncontrolled discretion may refuse to register any transfer of shares without assigning any reason therefor.
(2) No transfer of shares shall be registered if upon its registration the number of Members of the Company would exceed the maximum number prescribed by Clause 7.(1).

37. The registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Directors from time to time determine not exceeding in the whole 30 days in any one calendar year.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

38. In the case of the death of a Member, the survivor where the deceased was a joint holder, and the legal personal representative of the deceased where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his interest in the shares, but this Clause does not release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of a share that had been jointly held by him with other persons.
39. (1) Subject to the Bankruptcy Act 1966, a person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member may, upon such information being produced as is properly required by the Directors, elect either to be registered himself as a holder of the share or to have some other person nominated by him registered as the transferee of the share.
- (2) If the person becoming entitled elects to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by himself stating that he so elects.
- (3) If he elects to have another person registered, he shall execute a transfer of the share to that other person.
- (4) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of this Constitution relating to the right to transfer, and the registration of transfer of, shares are applicable to any such notice or transfer as if the death or bankruptcy of the Member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that Member.
40. (1) Where the registered holder of a share dies or becomes bankrupt, his personal representative or the trustee of his estate, as the case may be, is, upon the production of such information as is properly required by the Directors, entitled to the same dividends and other advantages, and to the same rights (whether in relation to meetings of the Company's Members, or to voting or otherwise), as the registered holder would have been entitled to if he had not died or become bankrupt.
- (2) Where 2 or more persons are jointly entitled to any share in consequence of the death of the registered holder, they shall, for the purpose of this Constitution, be deemed to be joint holders of the share.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

41. (1) If a Member fails to pay a call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment of the call or instalment, the Directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice to him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest that has accrued.
- (2) The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of 14 days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which payment required by the notice is to be made and shall state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
42. (1) If the requirements of a notice served under Clause 41 are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at anytime thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect.
- (2) Such a forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
43. A forfeited share may be sold, reissued or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit, and, at any time before a sale or disposition, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit.
44. A person whose shares have been forfeited ceases to be a Member in respect of the forfeited shares, but remains liable to pay to the Company all money that, at the date of forfeiture, was payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares (including interest at the rate of 8% per annum from the date of forfeiture on the money for the time being unpaid if the Directors think fit to enforce payment of the interest), but his liability ceases if and when the Company receives payment in full of all the money (including interest) so payable in respect of the shares.
45. A statement in writing declaring that the person making the statement is a director or a secretary of the Company, and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the statement, is prima facie evidence of the facts stated, in the statements as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.
46. (1) The Company may receive the consideration (if any) given for a forfeited share on any sale, reissue or disposition of the share and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of.
- (2) Upon the execution of the transfer, the transferee shall be registered as the holder of the share and is not bound to see to the application of any money paid as consideration.
- (3) The title of the transferee to the share is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in connection with the forfeiture, sale, reissue or disposal of the share.
47. The provisions of this Constitution as to forfeiture apply in the case of non-payment of any sum that, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, as if that sum had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

48. The company may by ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting:
- (1) convert all or any of its shares into larger or smaller numbers of shares; or
- (2) cancel shares that have been forfeited under the terms on which the shares are on issue.
49. (1) Unless the Company by an ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting authorises the Directors to make an issue of shares of a particular class, the Directors must, before issuing shares of a particular class, offer them to existing holders of shares of that class.
- (2) Subject to Clause 49.(5), the number of shares to be offered to each Member must be in proportion to the number of shares of that class that they already hold.
- (3) The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered and the period of time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined.

- (4) After the expiration of that time or on being notified by the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Directors may issue those shares in such a manner as they think most beneficial to the Company.
 - (5) Where, by reason of the proportion that shares proposed to be issued bear to shares already held, some of the first-mentioned shares cannot be offered in accordance with Clause 49.(2), the Directors may issue the shares that cannot be so offered in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company.
50. Subject to the Law, the Company may:
- (1) reduce its share capital in any manner;
 - (2) buy back its own shares.

GENERAL MEETINGS

51. Any Director may whenever he thinks fit convene a meeting of the Company's Members.
52. A general meeting shall be convened by the Directors on the request of the Members in accordance with section 249D of the Law.
53. A general meeting may be convened by the Members in accordance with sections 249E and 249F of the Law.
54. The Company may hold a meeting of its Members at 2 or more venues using any technology that gives the Members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate.

56. (1) Notice of every meeting of the Company's Members shall be given in the manner authorised by Clause 117 to
- (a) every Member and to every Director;
 - (b) every person entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member who, but for his death or bankruptcy, would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting; and
 - (c) the auditor for the time being of the Company.
- (2) No other person is entitled to receive notices of meetings of the Company's Members.
57. A notice of a meeting of the Company's Members shall:

 - (2) state the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting; and
 - (3) contain such other information as is required by section 249L of the Law.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

58. (1) No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Company's Members unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business.
- (2) Two persons each being a Member or a proxy or a Representative of a Member shall be a quorum for a meeting of the Company's Members. If the Company has only one Member, that Member may pass a resolution by the Member recording it and signing the record.
59. If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting:
- (1) where the meeting was convened upon the request of Members - the meeting shall be dissolved; or
 - (2) in any other case:
 - (a) the meeting stands adjourned to such day, and at such time and place, as the Directors determine or, if no determination is made by the Directors, to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and
 - (b) if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for such adjourned meeting, then the meeting shall be dissolved.

- the Members present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting (or part of it).
61. (1) The chairman shall adjourn a meeting of the Company's Members from time to time and from place to place if the Members present with a majority of votes that may be cast at that meeting agree or direct the chairman to do so. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
