2020 SYD Tax Statement Information for your 2020 Tax Return

2020 SYD Tax Statement Guide can be downloaded at

<https://www.sydneyairport.com.au/investor/investors-centre/stock-information/tax-tools>

This statement has been prepared for persons who were residents of Australia for income tax purposes throughout the year ended 30 June 2020 and held their SYD investments on capital account. It will assist those persons with the completion of their 2020 income tax returns. This statement should be read together with the 2020 SYD Tax Statement Guide. Should you have any questions relating to your personal tax position, it is recommended that you contact your accountant or taxation adviser.

A Tax-deferred amounts have capital gains tax implications. Investors who hold their SYD investments on capital account for income tax purposes are required to adjust the cost bases and reduced cost bases of their SAT1 units for tax-deferred amounts received. In some cases, tax-deferred amounts could constitute capital gains which have to be reported in your Australian income tax return in whole or in part. If you were an Australian resident individual, refer to Part A, Section 2 of your 2020 SYD Tax Statement Guide. If you were not an individual, or you were an individual who was not a resident of Australia for income tax purposes, Part B of the 2020 SYD Tax Statement Guide may assist you.

If you did not hold your SYD investment on capital account for income tax purposes, you should address the appropriate treatment for you of your tax-deferred distributions.

B Australian resident investors had tax withheld from their SAT1 distributions and SAL unfranked dividends at the highest marginal tax rate (including Medicare levy) where a tax file number (TFN) or Australian business number (ABN) (where relevant) was not supplied and an exemption was not claimed.

C This represents the unfranked dividend paid by SAL.

D The non-resident tax withheld amount reflects Australian interest withholding tax withheld from the interest component of the distribution paid by SAT1 and Australian dividend withholding tax withheld from unfranked dividends paid by SAL.
