Tax File Number Notification - Important Information

TFN law requires Trustees to ask you to provide your TFN to your super fund. Providing it to your fund will allow the Trustees to use your TFN for purposes stated in superannuation law. These purposes include:

- Taxing eligible termination payments at concessional rate;
- Finding and amalgamating your super benefits where insufficient information is available;
- Passing you TFN to the ATO when receiving a benefit or you have unclaimed money after reaching age pension age;
- Providing your TFN to a super fund receiving any benefits you may transfer. We will not pass your TFN to another fund if you advise us in writing not to do so, and
- Reporting superannuation contribution surcharge information to the ATO.

You are not required to provide your TFN. Declining to quote your TFN is not an offence. However, if you do not give your Fund your TFN, either now or later,

- You may pay more tax on your super benefits than you have to (you will get this back at the end of the year in your income tax assessment,
- It may be more difficult to find you super benefit or amalgamate any multiple accounts if you change your address without notifying the Trustee, and
- Surcharge contributions tax (which may not be payable if you provided your TFN) may be payable on contributions made for or by you.
