Hi Melissa,

there is a standard 0.9% fee when depositing money into this Crypto currency exchange. I believe that all of them incorporate a fee on the deposit of funds.

Cheers

David

Hi David,

Thank you for providing the required information.

We'd like to bring to your notice that all the bitcoin purchases had the following significant differences –

1. For Bitcoin transactions worth $9,910 per invoice, the amount paid from the bank was $10,000 – difference of $90 for 9 transactions (please see attached invoice – 5 Aug 2019 as an example)
2. For Bitcoin transaction worth $495.50 per invoice, the amount paid from the bank was $500 – difference of $4.50 (please see attached invoice – 10 July 2019 as an example)

Total difference amounts to $814.50. Could you please provide information regarding what constitute these differences?

Many thanks
Melissa

Hi Melissa,

This is the only relevant correspondence that we received from our lawyers regarding the monies paid to us. They didn't send out individual letters to each shareholder detailing their payments. We are hoping for a second similar amount later in the year.

Cheers

Hi David

Thank you for this information.

The auditor will require further documentation regarding the $148,800 deposit. Could you please contact the people that paid your SMSF the funds and ask for documentation regarding the payment and the payments nature.

We will also require these details for your personal investment in NKP with Margaret for your personal tax returns for the year ended 30 June 2020.

Many thanks

Hi Melissa,

I have attached the relevant information that I have on the requested items, dating each file to match the transaction date.

I cant find any additional information on the $148,800 deposit other than that attached.

We are still a part of the court case against the Chinese owner of NKP, hence the additional payments made to our “dissenting shareholders” lawyers. It should be in the Bermudan civil courts mid July, and hopefully some more money to be paid to us.

I’ll send a copy of the Yearly statements in early July.

Is there a minimum amount that I have to withdraw from our SMSF account this financial year?

Cheers

David and Margaret
