

Starting or running a business

The Australian Government's dedicated business website www.business.gov.au is a one-stop shop for business information from all levels of government. The website provides a range of free tools including planning templates, checklists and how-to guides to help you work smarter, not harder. Find business information and support the easy way, visit www.business.gov.au today.

Over the next year we'll be sending you a series of New to Business emails with information to help you manage and grow your business. You'll also receive emails from our Small Business Newsroom to keep you up to date with important tax and super news.

If you've indicated that you require endorsement as a deductible gift recipient, income tax exempt fund or tax concession charity, an application will be sent to you shortly.

The Registrar will periodically review your ABN registration. Where there is evidence that you're no longer entitled to hold an ABN your registration will be cancelled. Evidence of entitlement could include declaring business income in your income tax returns, and/or lodging activity statements within two years of your ABN registration.

Alternatively, you can update your details by contacting us on 13 92 26 between 8.00am and 6.00pm, Monday to Friday.

For more information about connecting your ABN to your myGov account and using your myGov details to access government services for business, go to www.at.gov.au/ABNconnect

If you don't have an AUSKey, but would like to register for one, go to www.abr.gov.au/auskey

You're legally required to ensure your ABN details are kept up-to-date and you must notify the Registrar of any changes to your details within 28 days.

Please check that the enclosed ABN details recorded for your business or organisation are correct and advise us if they are not.
