Financial year ending
This must be either this current financial year or the previous financial year. You cannot apply to split contributions made to your account before the beginning of last financial year.
3 0 / 0 6 / 2022
Taxed splittable contributions
Write the amount or percentage that your spouse is to receive. It cannot be more than 85% of the contributions you made in this category or more than your concessional contributions cap for the financial year. From 1 July 2019, the concessional contributions cap may be increased above the general concessional cap if you are eligible. To be eligible you must make concessional contributions in excess of the general concessional cap, have a total superannuation balance less than $500,000 immediately prior to the financial year, and have unused concessional cap space from the previous 5 years (with 2018–19 financial year being the first year you can accrue unused concessional contributions). Your concessional contributions cap will equal the general concessional cap plus the previously unused concessional contributions made in excess of the general concessional contributions cap. Your increased concessional contributions cap, will be used to determine the maximum amount of taxed splittable contributions.
The contributions in this category include:
 employer contributions (including salary sacrifice contributions) personal contributions you made for yourself that you have advised your super fund you will claim as a tax deduction for (You advise your super fund by giving them a completed Notice of intent to claim or vary a deduction for personal super contributions form available from our website or your fund may have their own notice of intent form. You must do this before you lodge your Superannuation contributions splitting application).
