Penalties may be imposed for false or misleading information in addition to penalties relating to any tax shortfalls.

Important

Before making this declaration check to ensure that all income has been disclosed and the annual return, all attached schedules and any additional documents are true and correct in every detail. If you leave labels blank, you will have specified a zero amount or the label was not applicable to you. If you are in doubt about any aspect of the annual return, place all the facts before the ATO.

Privacy

The ATO is authorised by the Taxation Administration Act 1953 to request the provision of tax file numbers (TFNs). We will use the TFN to identify the entity in our records. It is not an offence not to provide the TFN. However if you do not provide the TFN, the processing of this form may be delayed.

Taxation law authorises the ATO to collect information and disclose it to other government agencies. For information about your privacy go to ato.gov.au/privacy

The taxation of benefits to a member

5.3 Where a superannuation benefit is paid to a member, either as a lump sum commutation of a pension or direct pension payment it will be taxed as follows:

- (a) Tax-free Component - Any tax-free component payable is always tax-free when received by the member, irrespective of their age. This includes both lump sums and income streams.
- (b) Taxable Component – The following table highlights the taxation treatment of taxable benefits payable to a member. It should be noted that the preservation age for a person born prior to 1960 is age 55.
- (c) Untaxed Component – untaxed component is only found in SMSFs with life insurance and a lump sum is paid to a dependant or the member’s legal estate in the event of the member’s death.

Taxation of the Taxable Component

Type of Benefit	Under preservation age	Between preservation age and age 60	Age 60 and over
Lump sum	20%	Tax free up to the low rate cap amount with any remainder taxed up to a maximum rate of 15% (excluding Medicare levy)	Tax free
Income stream	Marginal tax rate	Marginal tax rate - 15% tax offset	Tax free

SMSF Trust Deed

5.4 The fund’s trust deed is the key determinant to what type of pension may be paid from the fund and should be reviewed (and potentially updated), prior to any income stream being commenced.

Date: 1.7.2021
Present: Geraldine Mary Mulkerin and Kerry Patrick Mulkerin
Held: 40 Duke Street, Toowong, QLD 4066

The Trustee of the above fund DO HEREBY RESOLVE as follows:

ADOPTION OF INVESTMENT POLICY STATEMENT, OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGY

It is noted that the Trustees have formulated investment objectives for the fund and an investment strategy to achieve those objectives, (the investment objectives and investment strategy together as attached) having regard to the whole of the circumstances of the fund, including:

- (i) the risk involved in making, holding and realising, and the likely return from the entity's investments having regard to its objectives and its expected cash flow requirements;
 - (ii) the composition of the entity's investments as a whole including the extent to which the investments are diverse or involve the entity in being exposed to risks from inadequate diversification;
 - (iii) the liquidity of the entity's investments having regard to its expected cash flow requirements;
- the ability of the entity to discharge its existing and prospective liabilities;
 - the fund profile;
 - anticipated future contributions;
 - past investment performance; and
 - the current investment portfolio and asset mix,

The Trustee resolved to adopt the investment objectives of the fund being "The Trustees of the fund have the objective of maintaining the fund in line with the governing rules of the fund and SISA and through its investment strategy seeking to maximise the superannuation benefits of all members of the fund having regard to risk and reward" and adopt and implement the investment strategy herein.
