2. Preliminary

2.1. Company legal capacity and powers

Subject to the Law, the Company has the legal capacity and powers of an individual, and also all the powers of a body corporate, including the power to:

- (a) issue and cancel shares in the Company, including bonus shares, preference shares and partly paid shares;
- (b) issue debentures of the Company;

2.2. Relevant provisions

Each of the provisions of the sections or sub-sections of the Law which would but for this Clause apply to the Company as a replaceable rule within the meaning of the Law are displaced and do not apply to the Company.

2.3. Type of company

The Company is a proprietary company.

2.4. Shareholders

- (a) The number of Members for the time being of the Company (exclusive of any person who is an employee of the Company or of any subsidiary of the Company and any shareholder who was an employee of the Company or of any subsidiary of the Company, when that person became a shareholder) is not to exceed fifty, but where two or more persons hold one or more shares in the company jointly, they will for the purposes of this Clause be treated as a single Member.
- (b) The Company must not engage in any activity that would require the lodgement with the Australian Securities and Investment Commission of a prospectus under Chapter 6D of the Law (except for an offer of shares to existing shareholders of the Company or employees of the Company or a subsidiary of the Company).

3. Classes of shares

Shares issued must be in a class described in the Third Schedule or any other class permitted by this Constitution.

4. Issue of shares and variation of rights

4.1. Issue of shares

Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares but subject to the Law, shares in the Company may be issued by the Directors and any such share may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or such restrictions, whether with regard to dividend, voting, return of capital or otherwise, as the Directors, subject to any resolution, determine.

4.2. Issue of preference shares

Subject to the Law, the Company may issue preference shares which are, or at the option of the Company are, liable to be redeemed and such power may be exercised by the Directors.

4.3. Share capital structure

- (a) If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class may be varied or cancelled with the consent in writing of the holders of the issued shares who are entitled to at least 75% of the votes that may be cast in respect of shares of that class, or by a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class.
- (b) The provisions of this Constitution relating to meetings of the Company's Members apply so far as they are capable of application to every such separate meeting of the Member(s) of a class of shares except that:
 - (1) where there is more than one member of a class, a quorum is constituted by two persons, each being a Member or a proxy or Representative of a Member, who between them hold or represent one-third of the issued shares of the class; or
 - (2) where there is one member of a class, a quorum is constituted by that Member or a proxy or Representative of that Member; and
 - (3) any holder of shares of the class, present in person or by proxy or by Representative, may demand a poll.
- (c) The rights attached to an existing class of preference shares will be taken to be varied by the issue of new preference shares that rank equally with those existing preference shares unless the new issue is authorised by:
 - (1) the terms of issue of the existing preference shares; or
 - (2) the Company's constitution (if any) as in force when the existing preference shares were issued.

4.4. Brokerage or commission payments

- (a) The Company may pay brokerage or commission to a person in respect of that person or another person agreeing to take up shares in the Company.
- (b) Payments by way of brokerage or commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash by the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly by the payment of cash and partly by the allotment of fully or partly paid shares.

4.5. Share recognition

- (a) Except as required by law, the Company will not recognise a person holding a share upon any trust.
- (b) Except as otherwise provided by this Constitution or by law, the Company is not bound by or compelled in any way to recognise (whether or not it has notice of the interest or rights concerned) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or unit of a share or any other right in respect of a share except an absolute right of ownership in the registered holder.

4.6. Share certificate

- (a) A person whose name is entered as a Member in the register of Members is entitled without payment to receive a certificate in respect of the share issued in accordance with the Law under the Seal or in such other manner permitted under the Law as the Directors determine but, in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons, the Company is not bound to issue more than one certificate.

- (b) Delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders is sufficient delivery to all such holders.

5. Lien

5.1. Lien on shares

- (a) The Company has a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all money (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share.
- (b) The Company has a first and paramount lien on all shares (other than fully paid shares) registered in the name of a sole holder for all money presently payable by him or his estate to the Company.
- (c) The Directors may at any time exempt a share wholly or in part from the provisions of this Clause.
- (d) The company's lien (if any) on a share extends to all dividends payable in respect of the share.

5.2. Sale of shares

- (a) Subject to Clause 5.2(b) the Company may sell, in such manner as the Directors think fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien.
- (b) A share on which the Company has a lien will not be sold unless:
 - (1) a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable; and
 - (2) the Company has, not less than 14 days before the date of the sale, given to the registered holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled to the share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the registered holder a notice in writing setting out, and demanding payment of, such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable.

5.3. Transfer of shares

- (a) For the purpose of giving effect to a sale mentioned in Clause 5.2, the Directors may authorise a person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser of the shares.
- (b) The Company must register the purchaser as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer and he is not bound to see to the application of the purchase money.
- (c) The title of the purchaser to the shares is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in connection with the sale.

5.4. Proceeds of sale

The proceeds of a sale mentioned in Clause 5.2 will be applied by the Company in payment first of the expenses of the sale, then of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue (if any) will (subject to any like lien for sums not presently payable, that existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

6. Calls on shares

6.1. Calls on shares

- (a) The Directors may make calls upon the Members in respect of any money unpaid on the shares of the Members and not by the terms of issue of those shares-made-payable-at fixed times.
- (b) Each Member must, upon receiving at least 14 days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment, pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares.
- (c) The Directors may revoke or postpone a call.

6.2. Call authorisation

A call will be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalments.

6.3. Calls on joint shareholders

The joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of the share.

6.4. Interest on calls

If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment of the sum, the person from whom the sum is due must pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment of the sum to the time of actual payment at such rate as the Directors determine, but the Directors may waive payment of that interest wholly or in part.

6.5. Payment of calls

Any sum that, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable on allotment or at a fixed date will for the purposes of this Constitution be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the sum becomes payable, and, in case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of this Constitution as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise apply as if the sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

6.6. Directors' discretion on calls

The Directors may, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

6.7. Payment on shares

- (a) The Directors may accept from a Member the whole or a part of the amount unpaid on a share although no part of that amount has been called up.
- (b) The Directors may authorise payment by the Company of interest upon the whole or any part of an amount so accepted, until the amount becomes payable, at such rate, not exceeding the prescribed rate, as is agreed upon between the Directors and the Member paying the sum.

- (c) For the purpose of Clause 6.7(b), the prescribed rate of interest is:
 - (1) if the Company has, by resolution, fixed a rate - the rate so fixed; and
 - (2) in any other case - 8% per annum.

7. Transfer of shares

7.1. Transfer of shares

- (a) Subject to this Constitution, a Member may transfer all or any of his shares by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or in any other form that the Directors approve.
- (b) An instrument of transfer referred to in Clause 7.1(a) must be executed by or on behalf of both the transferor and the transferee.
- (c) A transferor of shares remains the holder of the shares transferred until the transfer is registered and the name of the transferee is entered in the register of Members in respect of the shares.

7.2. Registrations on transfers

The instrument of transfer must be left for registration at the registered office of the Company, accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates and such other information as the Directors properly require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer and thereupon the Company may register the transferee as a Member.

7.3. Directors' discretion on transfers

- (a) The Directors may, at their discretion refuse to register any transfer of shares without assigning any reason.
- (b) No transfer of shares will be registered if upon its registration the number of Members of the Company would exceed the maximum number prescribed by Clause 2.4(a).

7.4. Registration deferrals/ suspensions

The registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Directors from time to time determine not exceeding in the whole 30 days in any one calendar year.

8. Transmission of shares

8.1. Title to shares on death of member

In the case of the death of a Member:

- (a) the survivor where the deceased was a joint holder; and
- (b) the legal personal representative where the deceased was a sole holder

will be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the deceased Member's interest in the shares. This Clause does not release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of a share that had been jointly held by him with other persons.

8.2. Transferee

- (a) Subject to the Bankruptcy Act 1966, a person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member may, upon such information being produced as is properly required by the Directors, elect either to be registered himself as a holder of the share or to have some other person-nominated by him registered as the transferee of the share.
- (b) If the person becoming entitled elects to be registered himself, he must deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by himself stating that he so elects.
- (c) If he elects to have another person registered, he must execute a transfer of the share to that other person.
- (d) If a Member dies or becomes bankrupt, the limitations, restrictions and provisions of this Constitution relating to the right to transfer, and the registration of transfer of shares are applicable to any such notice or transfer. These are applicable as if the death or bankruptcy of the Member had not occurred and the notice or transfer was a transfer signed by that Member.

8.3. Death of a registered holder

- (a) Where the registered holder of a share dies or becomes bankrupt, his personal representative or the trustee of his estate, as the case may be, is, upon the production of such information as is properly required by the Directors, entitled to the same dividends and other advantages, and to the same rights (whether in relation to meetings of the Company's Members, or to voting or otherwise), as the registered holder would have been entitled to if he had not died or become bankrupt.
- (b) Where 2 or more persons are jointly entitled to any share in consequence of the death of the registered holder, they will, for the purpose of this Constitution, be deemed to be joint holders of the share.

9. Forfeiture of shares

9.1. Notice of payment

- (a) The Directors may serve a notice on a Member requiring payment of any calls or instalments not paid by the due date.
- (b) The notice will name a further day at least 14 days ahead. Payment must be made by that further day. If it is not, the shares will be forfeited.

9.2. Notice of forfeiture

- (a) If the requirements of a notice served under Clause 9.1 are not complied with, the shares referred to in the notice will be forfeited by a Directors resolution.
- (b) Such a forfeiture will include all unpaid dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares.

9.3. Director's discretion on forfeitures of shares

A forfeited share may be sold, reissued or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit, and, at any time before a sale or disposition, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit.

9.4. Members liabilities

After share forfeiture, the previous Member remains liable to pay all outstanding liability. The Company may charge interest at 8% per annum from the date of forfeiture.

9.5. Statement of forfeiture

A statement in writing declaring that the person making the statement is a director or a secretary of the Company, and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the statement, is prima facie evidence of the facts stated, in the statements as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.

9.6. Consideration of forfeiture

- (a) The Company may receive the consideration (if any) given for a forfeited share on any sale, reissue or disposition of the share and execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of.
- (b) Upon the execution of the transfer, the transferee will be registered as the holder of the share and is not bound to see to the application of any money paid as consideration.
- (c) The title of the transferee to the share is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in connection with the forfeiture, sale, reissue or disposal of the share.

9.7. Non-payment

The provisions of this Constitution as to forfeiture apply in the case of non-payment of any sum that, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, as if that sum had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

10. Alteration of capital

10.1. Resolution to convert or cancel shares

The company may by ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting:

- (a) convert all or any of its shares into larger or smaller numbers of shares; or

- (a) The Directors can offer shares of a particular class, however, before doing so, they must offer them to existing shareholders of that class. The Company may authorise an issue by ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting.
- (b) Subject to Clause 10.2(e), the number of shares to be offered to each Member must be in proportion to the number of shares of that class that they already hold.
- (c) The offer must be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered and the period of time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined.

- (d) After the expiration of that time or on being notified by the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Directors may issue those shares in such a manner as they think most beneficial to the Company.
- (e) Where, by reason of the proportion that shares proposed to be issued bear to shares already held, some of the first-mentioned shares cannot be offered in accordance with Clause 10.2(b), the Directors may issue the shares that cannot be so offered in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company.

10.3. Capital reduction and buyback of shares

Subject to the Law, the Company may:

- (a) Reduce its share capital in any manner;
- (b) Buy back its own shares.

10.4. Pre-emptive rights to issue of shares and options

- (a) Despite anything to the contrary contained in this Constitution except for clause 10.4(d), before issuing shares or options in respect of shares, the Directors must offer the shares or options to be issued to the existing holders of the shares of that same class and if there are no existing shares of that class on issue, to all members. As far as practicable, the number of shares or options to be offered to each existing holder of shares in the class of shares to be issued must be in proportion to the number of shares of that class which they then hold as a proportion of the total number of shares in that class on issue and, if there are no such holders, to each member in proportion to the number of shares held by the member as a proportion of the total number of shares on issue by the Company.
- (b) To make the offer under clause 10.4(a), the Directors must give the members entitled to receive the offer a statement setting out the terms of the offer, including:
 - (1) the number of shares or options offered; and
 - (2) the period during which the offer will remain open.
- (c) The Directors may issue any shares or options not taken up under the offer made as they see fit.
- (d) The members may by resolution in general meeting or written consent of all the members authorise the Directors to make a particular issue of shares or options without complying with clause 10.4(a).

 - (1) every Member and to every Director;
 - (2) every person entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member who, but for his death or bankruptcy, would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting; and
