Your Tax File Number (TFN) is confidential. Before you provide it, you must be told:

Your TFN can be collected under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993. If you provide your TFN, it will only be used for legal purposes, which currently include:

- finding or identifying you superannuation benefits;
- calculating tax on eligible termination payments, and
- providing information to the Commissioner of Taxation.

These purposes may change in the future as a result of legislative change.

It is not an offence not to provide your TFN. If you do not:

- you may pay unnecessary tax on your benefits, which you will need to reclaim later through the income tax assessment process; and
- it may be more difficult to find unclaimed benefits that you have, or to locate and amalgamate other benefits you have.

The consequences of not providing your TFN may change in the future as a result of legislative change.

If you provide your TFN, the trustee may provide it to:

- the trustee of another superannuation fund when you transfer your benefits to it, unless you instruct the trustee not to; and
- the Commissioner of Taxation, but otherwise it will be treated as confidential.
