Reminder - your duty of disclosure

You have previously been given a notice informing you of your duty of disclosure in relation to a life insurance contract.

It's important to remember you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect the insurer's decision to insure you and the terms of your insurance. This includes answering all the questions in the application honestly, making sure you include all the information we ask for.

Where a policy owned by one person covers the life of another person, it's important that the other person also gives us all the information that is required under the duty. If he or she doesn't, then it can be treated as a failure by the owner of the policy to tell us something that the owner must tell us.

You have this duty until the insurer agrees to provide the insurance. If anything changes or you remember more information while we're processing your application, you'll need to let us know.
