In the event of all the Employers ceasing to carry on business, the Trustee with the agreement of the particular Member may hold the Benefit of that Member until the Member requests the receipt or transfer of that Benefit to another superannuation fund or Approved Deposit Fund subject to the preservation requirements and other requirements of the Act. If the Member does not wish the Trustee to continue to hold the moneys then subject to the preservation requirements of a Relevant Authority the Benefit for a Member shall be paid as determined by the Trustee subject to the requirement to pay the Vested Benefit and such amount shall be paid to the Member or transferred to another superannuation fund or to an Approved Deposit Fund as required.

12.0 ALTERATIONS

12.1 Alterations. The Trustee shall have the power from time to time by oral resolution, or deed and with the consent of the Principal Employer to alter, modify or add to any of the provisions of this Deed PROVIDED THAT:

- (a) The amendments that reduce an existing benefit will require the written consent of all of the Members or the Relevant Authority;
- (b) No amendment may be made which would result in a Vested Benefit not being paid or a preserved benefit being paid prior to retirement from the workforce or prior to attaining age 55 except in the event of death or disablement or in such other circumstances as are permitted under the Act; and

If there is any inconsistency between the provisions of the Trust Deed and the Rules and the said provisions of the Tax Act or Superannuation Act, then the provisions of the Tax Act and Superannuation Act shall prevail.
- 13.2 The Trustee is hereby authorised and empowered to act in a manner which ensures that the Trust administered in accordance with this Deed and Rules is or becomes a complying superannuation fund pursuant to the aforesaid legislation.

R1.1 Application.

This part, referred to as Rules 1, applies to those Members as advised to the Trustee by the Employer, who will receive a Benefit payable at or after the Normal Retirement Age by way of a Pension, determined by reference to Membership Period and Final Average Salary. Unless otherwise determined by the Trustee, this part of the Fund shall be operated on an unallocated basis where no individual account is maintained other than for a Member's Accumulated Contributions, if any. The Contributions by a particular Employer shall be unallocated as to the Members in whose respect the Contributions are made, but shall be separated in the accounts from moneys paid by other Employers, unless agreed otherwise by the Employers.

CONTRIBUTIONS

R1.2 Contributions.

(a) Contributions payable by Members. Unless otherwise determined by the Employer a Member shall not be required to contribute to the Fund.

(b) Contributions payable by Employer. The Contributions payable by each Employer in respect of any Member shall be determined by the Trustee and unless the Employer otherwise determines shall be payable annually in advance.

BENEFITS

R1.3 Pension at or after attainment of the Normal Retirement Age. The Trustee shall pay a Pension for life to a Member on his ceasing to be an Employee and a Member at or after the Normal Retirement Age.

The Pension, subject to the provisions of the Deed, shall be equal to the Member's Normal Retirement Factor multiplied by the Member's Final Average Salary.

The pension may be payable for a term certain as permitted by a Relevant Authority with the agreement of the Member and the Trustee.

R1.4

(a) Pension to spouse on death of Pensioner. On the death of a former Member receiving a Pension pursuant to these Rules and who is survived by a spouse, the Trustee shall, in its absolute discretion and pursuant to the provisions of the Deed, pay a lump sum or a pension for life to the surviving spouse. The lump sum will be determined by the Trustee upon the advice of an Actuary.

Unless otherwise determined by the Employer (any such determination being applicable to all Members and Beneficiaries covered under this part of the Fund), the amount of the Pension payable to the surviving spouse shall equal 85% of the Pension previously payable to the Member or such other proportion as may be allowed by a Relevant Authority.

(b) Payment to dependants on death of a pensioner. Upon the death of a former Member who dies without a surviving spouse or upon the death of the surviving spouse to whom the Trustee has paid a Pension in accordance with Rule 1.4(a), the Trustee shall pay a lump sum to the surviving Dependants of the Member, of an amount and in such proportions as the Trustee shall determine upon the advice of an Actuary.

R1.5 Pensions to be increased. Where a Pension is payable pursuant to the Rules, the Trustee shall at least once in each calendar year increase the Pension previously applying by an amount equal to any percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index (All States) which has occurred since the date of any previous increase made under this Rule (or the date at which a Pension first commenced to be paid, if later).

R1.6 Benefit in other circumstances. In the event of a Member ceasing to be an Employee and a Member, and not being entitled to a Benefit pursuant to any other Rule, the Trustee shall determine a lump sum Benefit pursuant to Rule R1.7 and shall preserve such Benefit in accordance with the terms of Clauses 9.19 and 9.20; PROVIDED THAT the Trustee may transfer such lump sum to another approved superannuation fund or an Approved Deposit Fund for the benefit of the Member; AND PROVIDED FURTHER THAT the Employer may request that an additional amount be provided, and the Trustee shall accede to such a request subject to the Actuary advising that the provision of such additional benefit does not thereby materially affect the Benefit secured to any other member by the terms of this Trust Deed.

The Benefit may be paid in the form of a pension if this is agreed with the Member. In which event the pension will be calculated on the advice of the Actuary.

If in the event that any lump sum Benefit determined under this Rule is excessive for the purpose of Clause 9.5, the Benefit may be expressed as a Pension of such amount and payable on such conditions as determined by the Trustee on the advice of an Actuary, provided it does not exceed the maximum pension amount determined pursuant to any rulings by a Relevant Authority.

R1.7 Calculation of Benefit under Rule R1.6. For the purpose of Rule R1.6, the lump sum Benefit shall be determined as the sum of (i) & (ii) hereof where -

- (i) is the Member's Accumulated Contributions; and
- (ii) is the Employer's Benefit Share multiplied by the Resignation Factor, all relevant calculations being determined as at the date on which the Benefit is to be paid.

R1.8 Death and Disablement Benefits where covered by Insurance. The Trustee may insure one or more Members for Benefits to be payable on the death or Disablement of the relevant Member or Members. Where the Trustee has effected such death and/or Disablement insurance the amount payable in the event of a Member's death or Disablement shall, in lieu of any payment due under Rule R1.4 or Rule R1.6, be a lump sum equal to the claim paid under such policy or in the event of Disablement a lump sum or income payment equal to the claim paid under such policy PROVIDED THAT any income benefit insured against the Disablement of a Member shall be restricted to no more than two years' payment and PROVIDED FURTHER THAT the total Benefit paid as a result of this Rule shall not be less than the amount which would otherwise have applied if the Benefit, in all cases, had been determined in accordance with the provisions of Rule R1.6.

The maximum lump sum Benefit insured under this Rule shall be 7 times the Member's Final Average Salary or such other amount approved by a Relevant Authority.

Where the Employer so directs, the Trustee shall be empowered to pay such insurance proceeds as an addition to any other Benefit, provided the total Benefit is not excessive in accordance with Clause 9.5.

In the event of the death of a Member before attaining the Normal Retirement Age, the amount of the Member's Benefit shall be held by the Trustee upon trust for the benefit of such one or more of the Dependants of the Member to be paid in a lump sum in such shares and proportions as the Trustee, in its absolute discretion determines.

If the Trustee is unable to establish within six months of the death of the Member that there are any Dependants, the Benefit payable under this rule should be paid to the Member's legal personal representative, but if a grant of probate or letters of administration in respect of the estate of the Member is not made within three years of his death, the Benefit payable hereunder shall be treated as a forfeited benefit and applied by the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Clause 9.10 of this Trust Deed.

R1.9 Commutation of Pension. Where a Member or former Member is receiving or is entitled to receive a Pension under Rules 1, he can elect to commute for a lump sum payment an amount not exceeding 50% of the Pension entitlement payable to or in respect of him or such other amount which may be approved by a Relevant Authority. The value of the Pension so commuted shall be determined by the Trustee after taking the advice of the Actuary.

contains similar restrictions on the payment of preserved benefits as this Deed and Rules AND PROVIDED FURTHER THAT the Employer may request that an additional amount be provided and the Trustee shall accede to such a request subject to the Actuary advising that the provision of such additional benefit does not thereby materially affect the benefit secured to any other Member by the terms of the Deed.

In the event of the death of a Member before attaining the Normal Retirement Age, the amount of the Member's Benefit shall be held by the Trustee upon trust with the benefit of such one or more of the Dependants of the Member to be paid in a lump-sum in such shares and proportions as the Trustee, in its absolute discretion determines.

If the Trustee is unable to establish within six months of the death of the Member that there are any Dependants, the Benefit payable under this Rule should be paid to the Member's legal personal representative, but if a grant of probate or letters of administration in respect of the estate of the Member is not made within three years of his death the Benefit hereunder shall be treated as a forfeited benefit and applied by the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of Clause 9.10 of this Trust Deed.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Dear ,

Re: THE MATOLA PTY. LIMITED SUPERANNUATION FUND

We wish to advise of the need to amend the Trust Deed dated the 12th day of April, 1979 which established the abovementioned Superannuation Scheme in order to comply with the Occupational Superannuation Standards Act of 1987 and the Occupational Superannuation Standards Regulations of 1987 to enable the above Fund to continue to receive concessional tax treatment on the investment of the Fund's income and on the receipt of contributions.

We confirm that by agreeing to these alterations, although there may be a restriction on the preservation and portability of your benefits and restricted standards of investment and administration placed on the Trustees of the Fund, there will be no reduction in your benefits being provided within the terms of the current Trust Deed.

Please notify your acceptance of these proposed alterations by signing and returning the attached Notice as soon as possible.

Yours faithfully

Trustee.
