Irish Withholding Tax

This statement should be retained as it will be accepted by the Irish Revenue Commissioners as evidence of Irish Withholding Tax deducted in respect of which you may be entitled to claim payment or relief. For the purposes of any Irish Withholding Tax reclaim, the Euro equivalent of the Irish Withholding Tax deducted in respect of these dividends was €6.17. The exchange rate used to convert from Australian dollars to Euros was A$1.00 = €0.6160. The AUD/EUR exchange rate for the purposes of Irish Withholding Tax was set on 6 December 2019, as required by Irish Revenue. All other exchange rates were set on 18 November 2019.

Should you wish to complete an Irish DWT form in order to claim exemption from Irish Withholding Tax for future dividend payments, please refer to www.computershare.com/au/forms search for JHX and scroll to 'Company Forms'.

For the information of securityholders resident in Australia:

If you are completing an Australian tax return you should include in your assessable income, as foreign source income, an amount equal to the gross Australian dollar value of the dividends paid to you, inclusive of any tax disclosed above.

Notes:

James Hardie Industries plc is incorporated in Ireland. These dividend payments are unfranked.

This statement contains information which is important for your taxation records. Please retain in a safe place as a charge may be levied for a replacement.

Important Notice

We note that as at the Record Date we had not received your direct credit banking instructions and as a result, in accordance with the Company's direct credit dividend payment policy, we have been unable to effect payment of your dividend entitlements.

Your dividend entitlements will be deposited into your nominated account after receipt of your valid direct credit banking instructions.

Please note you may be charged an administrative fee which will be deducted from your payment. A Direct Credit form and return envelope is enclosed for your convenience.

If you have submitted your direct credit banking instructions since the Record Date, we will be banking your dividend entitlements shortly. Upon crediting the dividend payments to your nominated account, a further advice will be sent to your registered address to confirm the deposit of that amount.

Please note that Irish Withholding Tax (if any) has been remitted to the Irish Revenue Commissioners.
