As a Telstra shareholder, Chapter 2C of the Corporations Act 2001 (CA) requires information about you (including your name, address and details of the shares you hold) to be included in Telstra's public share register. This information must continue to be included in the public share register even if you cease to be a Telstra shareholder. These statutory obligations are not altered by the Privacy Act 1988 (CA) (CA). Your information is collected by Link Market Services Limited (Link) on behalf of Telstra. It is collected to administer your shareholding and to improve your shareholding experience. Your personal information may be disclosed to certain parties or organisations outside Telstra, including Telstra's contractors (such as Link), brokers, printing companies, market researchers, the Australian Tax Office and law enforcement officers. All reasonable steps are taken to ensure that your personal information is accurate, complete and up-to-date. If some or all of your personal information is not collected, it might not be possible to administer your shareholding. You may access your personal information by contacting Link on the address provided on this form. For security reasons, you will be asked to quote your shareholder reference number and some requests may have to be put in writing.
