Have you forgotten to lodge?

› We note you are late with your return

To whom it may concern,

We have noticed that your listed return is overdue. If you have lodged recently, thank you – you do not need to do anything further.

What you need to do

- › Lodge your overdue return or ask a registered tax practitioner for help to lodge
- › get in touch with us if you are experiencing difficulties.

Most Australians lodge on time to support the services we all enjoy.

Our information indicates you need to lodge as you are a self-managed superannuation fund (SMSF) that has not notified us it has wound up and your taxation affairs are not up to date.

It is also important that you tell us if your SMSF has never held assets for the benefit of its members.

Yours faithfully
Melinda Smith
Deputy Commissioner of Taxation

NEED HELP?

We can help you with your questions about lodgment or any other tax matter, including how to pay. Support is available online or by phone.

Go to ato.gov.au anytime to find the answer to your question or phone 13 11 42 during office hours. It will be easier if you have this letter with you when you phone us.
