Valuable protection for your business

Thank you for choosing SGIC to protect your business for the last 12 months. Helping you protect your most valuable asset - your business - is our business and we take this very seriously.

We are now writing to let you know that your cover will soon expire. To enable you to renew your Policy, we enclose a Certificate of Insurance which outlines the terms of cover and premium payable for the next 12 months.

Your insurance can mean the difference between your business recovering from a setback, or being forced to close its doors. We also know that a lot can change in a business over a year. For these reasons we urge you to take the time to check your Certificate of Insurance and consider the adequacy of the types of cover and amounts of cover listed.

You may be eligible for exemption from NSW Stamp Duty

If you are a small business eligible for the insurance duty exemption under section 259B of the Duties Act 1997 (NSW), you will need to tell us so we can apply the exemption to your policy. If you do not declare that your business is eligible, we will continue to charge you the full duty on your premium.

If you aren't sure of your eligibility, or would like more information regarding the stamp duty exemption for small businesses, please visit the NSW Government website at: www.revenue.nsw.gov.au/taxes/insurance

Please visit sgic.com.au/biz/stampduty website for more information about how to declare your eligibility for a stamp duty exemption on your Business Insurance policy.

Making changes to your policy can be easy. If you are unsure about what your policy includes, or are considering extending or increasing your cover please do not hesitate to contact us on 132 818.

Once again, thank you for choosing SGIC as your business insurer.

Yours faithfully,

Keira Warren
Sales & Service Manager
